

MARCHESI DE CORDANO 'AIDA' MONTEPULCIANO

93 POINTS - LUCA MARONI

APPELLATION

Loreto Aprutino, Abruzzo, Italy

VARIETALS

100% Montepulciano

VINEYARDS

The Marchesi de 'Cordano estate is located 30 km from the Gran Sasso massif and from the Adriatic Sea, in the hilly area surrounding Loreto Aprutino, at an altitude of 307 meters above sea level, with exposure to the South and Southeast. Its 18 hectares, planted with vineyards, extend over a clay and arenaceous-marly soil, easily affected by the waters and caressed by the sea breeze and winds.

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

The color of this Montepulciano red wine is ruby red with purple reflections. The nose is flowery and fruity, with hints of violet and nuances of cherry and plum. The palate has a full structure and fruity taste. It is also delicate and tannic, sweet, and velvety, with a good length.

FOOD PAIRING

A great wine to pair with sweet Italian Sausage with Fennel, Meat Lover's Pizza, Beef Brisket, Beef Bolognese, Smoked Meats, Aged Cheddar, Asiago, and Parmesan.
