

The Raley's Supermarkets and Joyce Raley Teel Crime

This story you are about to read may go down in U.S. history as one of the biggest “white collar crimes” ever. This crime is over 40 years in the making. It is amazing how that when a crime goes undetected for so long, criminals often over time get sloppy and even return to the scene of the crime. Which is the case in this crime. As we have seen in recent years, the rich and affluent famous are very rarely held accountable by the law for the crimes they commit. They must feel that they are above the law, and sometimes they have so much money they can even buy the law. Today, we all know there are two sets of laws in America? Those who can buy the law? and those who can't? There shouldn't be, but in Sacramento, it has happened by the City's wealthiest.

In the May 1994 edition of Working Woman Oprah Winfrey was the cover featured woman and was #44 in the Top 50 Women. Also in this edition was Sacramento's Joyce Raley Teel. She was listed at #2 in the Top 50 Women. She was 42 spots ahead of world famous Oprah Winfrey.

In 1994, Joyce Raley Teel was enjoying all the glory and honors of being the wealthiest woman ever in Sacramento and “Businesswoman of the Year”

In 6 months her company's crime was exposed!

In November of that same year, a 70 year old man by the name of Charles Nordby, filed what may have been the largest civil lawsuit, ever, in the history of Sacramento County. It was against Raley's Supermarkets and Joyce Raley Teel et al... for the amount of $592 million His suit claimed he had made Raley's and the Teel's the success they were and they had defrauded him. His suit was filed and titled “Fraud” with “Unjust Enrichment”, and he was seeking damages that were equal to the entire fortune of the Raley's Supermarket chain and the Teel's which were all created off of the “Fraud” that was perpetrated upon him. Joyce Raley Teel, outraged by this lawsuit was never going to allow Charles Nordby to have his day in court or any of her ill-gotten wealth.

So what did she do? She had the largest Law firm in Northern California, Downy Brand, Seymour and Rohwer, put the fix on this problem. How did they fix it? They also defrauded Charles Nordby, and they violated the “Rule of Law” in their actions, words, papers and court. They must have been real good friends with the “Honorable” Judge Joe Gray. He also helped them to put the fix on the lawsuit and disallowed Charles Nordby his true day in court.

According to Forbes, Joyce Raley Teel was worth $1.8 billion dollars.

With that much money you can fix a lot of people and things to make sure you are cleared from the courts, you are free from investigation, your crime is kept from the public because you “own” the NEWS and no one ever knows anything about the initial crime committed against Charles Nordby.

But that made the crime become so much bigger. All the players involved colluded to conceal the crime. To save Raley's and Joyce Raley Teel.

As Joyce Raley Teel and Raley's Supermarkets

began spinning a massive web of fraud and deception across Sacramento and beyond, they were quietly being exposed by the family of Charles Nordby, who were already investigating everything about Raley's, Tom Raley and everyone connected. They uncovered more than they ever needed.

Joyce Raley Teel and Raley's were going into a serious "damage control" mode. Of course they already had the fix on all of the news media and especially the two main sources, The Sacramento Bee and KCRA3, where they would start every news broadcast with this:

"The News is Brought to You by Raley's"

Do you remember that? Stan Atkinson was the news anchor then. He was their friend. But all the news media allowed Raley's advertising budget, which was in the millions and very lucrative to them to look the other way when it came to the biggest local story that ever crossed their desk.

Now they were going to influence the religious community

As more and more people were hearing about the true story of Raley's, nobody could believe it. They weren't hearing anything on the news about it, how could this story be true? Raley's web and damage control were working, but would now begin using the religious community. There were so many religious leaders throughout the years that were deceived into believing Raley's lie and became part of their web. But the three that stood out the most were the pastors of the 3 largest Christian churches in the Sacramento area. If you get these men on your side, no one would ever believe the true story of Raley's. It is no longer a secret to who these men are, just go to the websites, they are listed there. The Bible states that God hates a lying tongue. With their words and with their silence they have all lied about Charles Nordby and are complicit in the corruption of Joyce Raley Teel and Raley's. Were they also financially influenced by the Raley's wealth? Probably.

Every politician in Sacramento have closed their eyes to the crime.

Joyce Raley Teel and Raley's Supermarkets have covered their crimes throughout the entire Northern California area. They controlled the news, the legal and court system, the religious community, politicians and even law enforcement. There you have it, crime does pay with

The Greatest "MACHINE" ever assembled to cover up a crime.

So who are the victims of Joyce Raley Teel and Raley's Supermarket machine? Not just Charles Nordby and his family, but rather everyone who always believed that Raley's was an honest family operated local grocery store company. Now you know the truth. Their entire success and wealth were actually the success of an honest man, a WWII veteran with nine children. And his success created the greatest success and wealth ever in Sacramento. But it also created the wealth needed so Joyce Raley Teel and Raley's could create Sacramento's Greatest Crime Ever! What a story.

Just think, in 1991, all Joyce Raley Teel had to do was call Charles Nordby and thank him. But she couldn't do that, her pride and her wrath of discovering the true success story of her father Tom Raley, drove her mad into "Machine" mode thinking her money would save her.

Now the Sacramento Queen of The Machine knows that it only delayed the inevitable.
