What is Camp Cadet?

The Board of Directors of Southcentral Camp Cadet Incorporated is proud to introduce you to Camp Cadet - an annual summer camp for boys and girls ages 13 through 15. The camp is held each summer during the month of June at York College in York Pennsylvania

The goal of Camp Cadet is to provide participants with a positive attitude towards the law enforcement profession through exposure to the criminal justice system from the perspective of a police Cadet.

CAMP CADET IS EDUCATION

Camp Cadet is primarily an educational experience. The staff is comprised of carefully selected police officers and employees trained to instruct the Cadets in our judicial system and various aspects of law enforcement and safety.

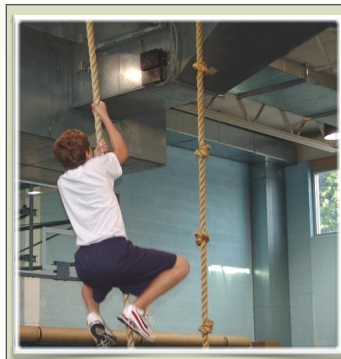

The camp is designed to bring a better understanding of law enforcement activities to the youths as they live in an atmosphere similar to an actual Police Training Academy. Emphasis is placed on self-discipline, the ability to make new friends, and the ability to work as part of

A typical camp cadet schedule includes presentations by representatives of law enforcement agencies, such as District Court Judges, District Attorney, Secret Service, FBI, and State and Local police. Cadets learn that in the real world, law enforcement is a democratic system working for the good of law-abiding citizens - unlike television show depictions.

A visual inspection of the tools of law enforcement and crime prevention is part of the Cadets' week-long training. Typical equipment displays are radar speed detectors, breath testing devices for identifying drunk drivers, police patrol vehicles and the State Police Helicopter.

CAMP CADET IS CHARACTER

For many youngsters, Camp Cadet is their first encounter with a police officer. Instead of fear and hostility, there is awe and eagerness to learn. Instead of prison bars, there are open doors. Instead of being caught in an illegal act, the young people at Camp Cadet have volunteered to be here. Participants in Camp Cadet learn to respect the law, and most importantly, to respect themselves.

spotless each morning and questions to counselors are preceded by "Sir" or "Ma'am."

The Camp Cadet youth are challenged by classroom instruction and physical activities, such as marching and running. Bunks are required to be

CAMP CADET IS FELLOWSHIP

Cadets witness the value of society daily, the friendship of fellow campers and counselors, and the benefits of the community at large. They sleep and eat together, march together, learn together, and play together.

Campers share all the day's duties. Each day's schedule includes work, ceremonial details, and recreational activities. There are ball games, educational programs, and of course free time. Cleanliness is all-important from the morning cleanup to the evening shower before lights out.

Recreation carries its own responsibilities. The Cadets learn how to make proper choices from the police officers, presenters, and other professionals. They hear from the proper authorities that drug and alcohol use are not recreational, but dangers to be avoided.
