A MESSAGE FROM THE GRAND KNIGHT

I hope everyone had a happy and joyful Christmas. We enjoyed ours with a visit to New York State, where we spent time with our family and 9 of our grandchildren and our new great grandson. The only problem we encountered was that we had a snowstorm and our return flight was cancelled; we're not able to get another for three days.

It was with mixed emotions we said goodbye to our Grand Knight and his wife Barb as they move to North Carolina to be closer to family to assist them with some of the problems we too often experience as "WE GROW MORE MATURE". They have been good neighbors and will always remain the best of friends.

The K of C Catholic Citizenship Essay Contest awards were presented at the school mass on December 17th. The first place winner was Caiden Matthews, awarded $100, a Certificate and entry in the State Competition, second place to Valeria Velilla-Pacheco, awarded $75 and a certificate (however she was unable to attend as the family had left for Christmas vacation), third place went to Eli Highfill with an award of $50 and a certificate. The competition was fierce with only four percentage points separating the top five essays.

Our scholarship raffle was a complete sellout and a special thanks to Chris Procise for his tireless effort.

As we start the New Year, we look forward to some of our busiest times. We must elect a new Deputy Grand Knight at our January meeting, we have our Citizens With Disabilities (Tootsie Roll) fund raiser and the Polish Dinner in February, then we start Lent (with the Ash Wednesday soup and sandwich and the Friday fish fries, yet to be finalized), for just a few, so don't be hesitant to volunteer.

With that my bride of 59 years and I wish everyone a Happy, Healthy and Blessed New Year.

Vivat Jesus!
Bill and Joyce Collins

PGK Mark O's Corner Offering !

Peace be with you! We made it to 2026! "Should old acquaintance be forgot, / And never brought to mind? / Should old acquaintance be forgot, / And auld lang syne?" We're bound to hear a version of that no matter which TV network you prefer to view. My +Mom liked Guy Lombardo, growing up that's who we sang along with...

So what the heck does 'Auld Lang Syne' really mean? The phrase "auld lang syne" literally translates to "old long since," and basically means, "days gone by." Meant to bring up feelings of nostalgia and a love of old relationships and times gone by. So when you sing "auld lang syne, my dear" in the chorus, you're essentially cheering to days gone by, which is why people sing the song when they're remembering the good times. This may have been a difficult year for some. Whether it be due to the sting of losing a loved one, or suffering the effects of declining health ourselves. Wherever we may find ourselves, may we sing of the good times we did have and the Blessings that did come our way. Thankful that we can meet at the table of God and receive Him fully unto ourselves. Let us resolve to dedicate ourselves to Living and Practicing our Faith. And, in today's tumultuous world, we must include, Protect & Defend Our Faith!

Blessings for a Happy &
Healthy New Year!

Vivat Jesu! Please Pray for Vocations!
