A MESSAGE FROM THE GRAND KNIGHT

We survived the Holidays and now have hopes of warmer weather as the daylight grows longer. February begins the season of many opportunities to display the Fraternity and the Unity of our Council. There are many activities that require volunteers – the annual Polish Dinner on Saturday February 15; a Parish Picnic on February 23; the annual Citizens with Disabilities Fund-raising campaign, at all Masses March 1 & 2; Ash Wednesday and the six Friday Fish Fries beginning March 5 all require our United efforts to make these events both fun and successful. I ask that you watch for the email blasts announcing the need for your assistance. The Kitchen Krew Chief has the work instructions required of all the various tasks from Sous Chef to collecting Admission Tickets providing many opportunities for everyone to easily participate. As the saying goes: “Many hands make light work” and spreading out the work lessens the workload for everyone participating. Do not be timid, if you have never worked in a kitchen before, as the Kitchen Krew Chief is always checking and guiding everyone to be certain the work is done correctly and safely. I want to reiterate the congratulations and thanks to Ray Crowell for his recruiting efforts enabling our Council to meet its New Member Goal so quickly; and to Chris Procise for his success as Scholarship Raffle Chairman in raising $5,000+. Again, I ask that you be watchful and thoughtful for the emails seeking volunteers. Always remember our ailing Brothers and their families in your prayers.

Faith over Fear in ALL Things...Always!!

Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, in you we contemplate the splendor of true love; to you we turn with trust. Holy Family of Nazareth, grant that our families too may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel, and small domestic churches. May families never again experience violence, rejection, and division; may all who have been hurt or scandalized find ready comfort and healing. Make us once more mindful of the sacredness and inviolability of the family, and its beauty in God's plan. Graciously hear our prayer. Amen.

WORDS OF WISDOM

"May we never risk the life of our souls by being resentful or by bearing grudges."

- Saint Gregory of Nyssa

FREE TO BE Faithful

"It has been observed that people emulate the five people they spend most time with - for better or worse. Make Jesus one of those five people. Spending time in the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist will transform you and your life in ways you cannot even begin to imagine."

~ by Matthew Kelly (in his book: 33 Days to the Eucharistic Glory)

Ray Crowell, Faith Director

PGK Mark O's Corner Offering !

Peace be with you! Mind if I digress for a moment? As I pen this, THE Ohio State University won the College Football National Championship; coming soon is the NFL Conference Battle, then the Super Bowl. The NBA's in full bounce, Auto Racing's Revving Up, Golf is in Full Swing, and Pitchers & Catchers report for Spring Training. I am a Sports Spectator (Go Browns!) for one very good reason, I stink at playing sports; no medals, no trophies, no rings or jackets. And I'm Ok with that, because I have a few memories where I (in my mind) was a star. For example, Gannon University intramurals, Greek Fraternity Division, flag football and I was center for the Pikes. I hiked the ball, held my block for 2 counts and ran to the endzone catching the perfect spiral; a defender upset I'm sure, submarined me, but as if held by my Guardian Angel, I slid on my knees and stood straight up to the displeasure of my foe; feeling bad, I held out the ball as if offering to him, then dropping it to the ground as my teammates came cheering. I don't recall if we won, but I do know that this day, I did.

Next month begins Lent, we fast and give alms, but are to wash our faces and comb our hair so to not appear that we are atoning. Do Not Show Pride! Luckily, I've already shown mine.

Vivat Jesu! Please Pray for Vocations!

Knights in the News

From the Desk of District Deputy Denis Milonas

Brother Knights,

Our mission as Knights of Columbus is rooted in charity, unity, and fraternity—principles that call us to action in our parishes and communities. To continue our good works, we must seek out and invite good Catholic men to stand beside us in service and faith.

Recruitment is not just about numbers; it's about strengthening our brotherhood with men who share our commitment to family, Church, and charitable outreach. There are many Catholic men who seek a deeper connection to their faith and a way to serve others—sometimes all they need is an invitation. By sharing our own experiences and the fulfillment we find in our Order, we can inspire them to take that step.

I encourage each of you to be ambassadors of our mission. Speak to fellow parishioners, friends, and family about what it means to be a Knight. A simple conversation can lead to a lifelong journey of faith and service.

Together, let's build a stronger brotherhood and continue making a meaningful impact in our Church and community.
