The mission of the Intercollegiate Equestrian Foundation Inc. (IEF) is to foster and promote intercollegiate equestrian activities and competition through the awarding of scholarships and grants. The scholarships are awarded to those undergraduate students who have competed in intercollegiate equestrian activities and are based upon non-discriminatory criteria including academic achievement, equestrian sport achievement, community service and financial need. The IEF is a non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation.

The IEF is proud to announce the creation of two special scholarships in recognition of two individuals who made an incalculable impact upon collegiate equestrian sport.

NAOMI BLUMENTHAL MEMORIAL HORSEMAN SCHOLARSHIP

The Naomi Blumenthal Horsemanship Scholarship has been created to honor Naomi's immeasurable contribution to the IHSA as well as her lifelong dedication to horsemanship and learning. For than more than 40 years, Naomi served the IHSA as a coach, show manager and secretary, regional president, zone chair and executive treasurer. She was dedicated to teaching and sought to support dedicated individuals who were looking to establish a career within the horse industry. This award goes to an IHSA student who is dedicated to proper horsemanship, takes an active role in the management of their team's IHSA horse show or participates actively in the management of horses.

This scholarship is made possible by the generous support of Shari and Corey Schneider, Naomi's daughter and son-in-law.

CLARK BRADLEY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Clark Bradley Memorial Scholarship honors the decades of commitment and impact that Clark Bradley had upon western horsemanship and reining within the IHSA. Bradley was the coach of the University of Findlay Western team for over 30 years. He was an instructor, team coach, competitor and judge. During his tenure at the University of Findlay, the Western team won seven IHSA/American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) Team National Championships and had five AQHA High-Point Open Rider National Champions. In 2001, Bradley was named the AQHA Professional Horseman of the Year. He was inducted into the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Hall of Fame and the All-American Quarter Horse Congress Hall of Fame. This scholarship will be awarded to a deserving IHSA rider competing in the western divisions.
