

MOUNTAIN BIKE CENTRE OF SCOTLAND

A Trail Through Time with MTBCOS

2014 - APRIL

MTBCOS project started hosted by ENU funded by Scottish Funding Council, with Scottish Enterprise & DMBinS

JUNE

1st MTBCOS Innovation clinic @ Glentress, attended by Flaer & Findra

MTBCOS offices opened their doors at Glentress Forest

AUGUST

2016 - JULY

MTBCOS Project continues with 3 further years of funding from SFC

1st of 5 years exhibiting at Eurobike, with support from Scottish Development International

Scottish Funding Council
Comhairle Maoineachaidh na h-Alba

NOVEMBER

2017 - FEBRUARY

Professor Geraint Florida-Jame's professorial lecture

1st Annual Scottish MTB Awards in partnership with DMBinS

SCOTTISH MTB AWARDS

AUTUMN

2018 - NOVEMBER

1st International Innovation Conference held in Aviemore

Pilot children's school design on MTB competition

MAY

MTBCOS/ENU becomes associate member of Cycle Industries Europe & hosted CIE at Scotland Europa Brussels

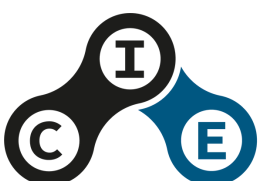

2019 - APRIL

Fiona Hyslop MSP launched the Scottish Mountain Bike Strategy for 2019-25

MTBCOS Project funded for further 3 years by Scottish Government

JULY

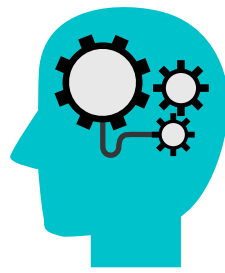

Cycling Industries Europe

Borderlands Partnership announced that up to £19m will be invested in a Mountain Bike Innovation Centre adjacent to a Mountain Bike Adventure Park in Scottish Borders

AUTUMN

A Memorandum of Understanding signed by University of Strathclyde and ENU to establish the proposed new innovation centre as an outreach for NMIS (National Manufacturing Institute for Scotland)

NOVEMBER

MTBOS hosts International Innovation Summit at Innerleithen

2020 - JANUARY

Dr. Lewis Kirkwood, research assistant engaged at ENU to undertake academic research projects

MARCH

MTBCOS'S services move to online platforms

DECEMBER

To date MTBCOS have hosted 120 innovation focused events, facilitated 200 collaborative ventures, engaged with 268 businesses and assisted in the development of £16m of cycling related products

