

Finish Faithfully

Scripture: “For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time for my departure is near. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.” 2 Timothy 4:6–8

Hebrews 12:1–3; Matthew 24:13

Jesus Is Speaking to You

When you first began following Jesus Christ, your heart was filled with joy.
Everything seemed new.
Every step was exciting.

As the years pass, your journey may look different.
There will be victories.
There will be disappointments.
There will be seasons of waiting.
There will be days when you feel strong, and days when you feel weak.

Do not lose heart.
Keep walking with Me.
Understand, Jesus Christ is not only the Author of your faith.
He is faithful to bring it to completion.

What Is Jesus Teaching You?

Faithfulness is not measured by how fast you run.
It is measured by continuing to walk with Him.
Some days your steps may feel small.
Some days they may feel difficult.
However, every step taken in obedience matters to your Heavenly Father.

Now, don't miss this.
Do not compare your journey with someone else's.
He has called you by name.
He knows the path He has prepared for you.

Keep your eyes on Jesus. Not on the crowd.
Not on your circumstances. Not even on yesterday's successes.
Walk with Jesus today.

As Jesus Christ becomes your lifestyle, faithfulness becomes the steady rhythm of a heart that continues trusting Him one day at a time.

A Lie You May Be Believing

Maybe you've believed that because you've stumbled, your race is over.
Or maybe you think your most fruitful days are behind you.
However, listen to Jesus.

As long as Jesus has given you today, He have given you an opportunity to walk with Him today. His grace is greater than your failures. His mercy is new every morning.

Do not let yesterday keep you from obeying Jesus today.
Rise again. Walk with Jesus again.

What Difference Does This Make?

When your eyes remain fixed upon Jesus Christ, you are no longer controlled by either success or failure.

You learn to rejoice in His faithfulness.

You become patient during seasons of waiting.

You remain hopeful when progress seems slow.

You discover that finishing faithfully is made up of thousands of ordinary days spent abiding in Him.

As Jesus Christ becomes your lifestyle, endurance is no longer something you force. It becomes the natural fruit of continually walking with your Savior.

How Should This Shape the Way You Live?

As you begin today, don't ask, "How far do I still have to go?"
Instead ask, "Jesus, how can I faithfully walk with You today?"

Take today's step.

Trust today's grace.

Obey today's invitation.

Leave tomorrow in Jesus' hands.

Remain close to Jesus.

The Shepherd who has led you this far will faithfully lead you the rest of the way.

A Prayer

Father, thank You that You never leave me to walk alone.
Thank You that Your Son is faithful from beginning to end.
Strengthen me when I grow weary.
Lift me when I stumble.
Keep my eyes fixed upon Jesus.

Help me to remain faithful in both the ordinary and the difficult seasons of life.
May I one day finish my race with gratitude, giving all the glory to Christ alone.
In His precious name, Amen.

An Invitation

Before you continue with your day, spend some time alone with the Lord.
Read today's Scriptures slowly.
Then quietly ask, "Jesus, what does faithfulness look like for me today?"

Don't think first about the years ahead.
Think about this day.
This conversation.
This opportunity to obey.
Walk with Him in the ordinary.
Trust Him in the unseen.

Remain close to Jesus.
As you continue abiding in Him, you'll discover that a faithful life is not built through extraordinary moments alone. It is built through countless ordinary moments in which you simply continue saying, "Yes, Lord."

And as Jesus Christ becomes your lifestyle, you will find that the race is not won by those who run the fastest, but by those who continue walking with the Savior who never leaves their side—Jesus Christ.
