

Medicare Basics

Information and resources to help you learn more about Medicare.

When it comes to Medicare, one size definitely doesn't fit all. What works for your neighbor may not be the best fit for you. As a UnitedHealthcare® licensed sales agent, I'm here to help you understand your needs, explain your options and make Medicare as simple as possible to understand.

Getting started.

There's a lot to learn once you start exploring Medicare and the many options available. Here are some tips to help you get started with Medicare coverage.

- Call Social Security to confirm your eligibility. If you're already collecting Social Security, you'll automatically be enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B when you turn 65.
- If you're employed, ask your employer about company-sponsored health benefits.
- Visit MedicareMadeClear.com to learn the basics of Medicare as well as other helpful information.
- To learn whether you're eligible for financial help with the costs of Medicare, call your state's Medical Assistance or Medicaid office.

Medicare choices.

After you enroll in Original Medicare (Parts A and B), there are 2 ways to get additional coverage since Original Medicare doesn't cover all medical expenses and doesn't cover prescription drugs.

Option 1

OR

Option 2

Add one or both of the following to Original Medicare:

Choose a Medicare Advantage plan:

Medicare Supplement Insurance Plan

Offered by private companies

Medicare Supplement: Helps pay some of the out-of-pocket costs that come with Original Medicare

Medicare Part D Plan

Offered by private companies

Part D: Helps pay for prescription drugs

Medicare Advantage Plan

Offered by private companies

Part C: Combines Part A (hospital insurance) and Part B (medical insurance) in one plan

Part D: Usually includes prescription drug coverage

May offer additional benefits and features not provided by Original Medicare

Your Medicare Planning Checklist

6–8 months before: Research.

- Learn about Medicare basics, including plan types and eligibility, at MedicareMadeClear.com.
- Start receiving our helpful emails, which provide important dates, resources and steps to enroll when you're ready. Sign up at MedicareMadeClear.com.

4–5 months before: Prepare.

- If you're collecting Social Security benefits, you should be automatically enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B.
- If you're not collecting Social Security benefits, contact your local Social Security office to enroll in Medicare Parts A and B.
- If you're switching from an employer-sponsored health care plan, contact the benefits administrator to learn what you may need to do.

2–3 months before: Enroll.

- Watch for your Medicare card to arrive in the mail. You'll need it to enroll in a UnitedHealthcare Medicare plan.
- Compare the benefits and costs of the plans available in your area.

On or after your birthday: Don't delay.

Enrolling before your birthday month ensures you have a Medicare plan on the first day of the month you turn 65. Your Initial Enrollment Period (IEP) starts 3 months before the month you turn 65 and ends 3 months after. Be sure to enroll during your Initial Enrollment Period to avoid the late enrollment penalty. As soon as you're ready to enroll, I'm here to help.
