We are glad that you have chosen to participate in the Divine Liturgy with us today and we pray that it has been a spiritually nourishing experience. If you would like to register as a parishioner or if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask.

The Mysteries (Sacraments) of the Church are available for all Baptized Catholics in Good Standing. This means that a Catholic attends Divine Liturgy on Sundays and Holydays of Obligation, utilizes the Mystery of Repentance at least once a year, receives the Eucharist at least once a year, observes the church's penitential seasons and fasting regulations to include abstaining from meat or an equivalent penance on all Fridays except when mitigated, supports the Church in Her temporal needs through offering of time, talent, and treasure, and believes the Church's teachings on faith and morals.

LET US REMEMBER IN PRAYER:

Phillip Scott, Brenda Bryant, Ernie & Patricia Holewinski, John Gollner, Logan Camacho, Richard Ballard, John Rooth, Suzanne Pichnarcik, Anna Cospelich, Joanne Baranko, and Frank Korkowski. May our Lord Jesus Christ, the Physician and Healer of souls and bodies, grant them peace and good health for many blessed years.

METROPOLITAN CANTOR INSTITUTE CLASSES:

The Metropolitan Cantor Institute is responsible for creating cantor aids and for training cantors for parish service. They offer many courses which anyone may take. In addition to the four free MCI Online classes which can be taken at any time (sign yourself up!) at <http://mci.archpitt.org/online>, the following classes start this week, and there is still time to enroll:

- Introduction to the Divine Liturgy (covers pages 11-103 of the Divine Liturgies book)
- The Liturgical Year (covers pages 242-357)
- Hierarchical Services and Reader Services (includes ordination services, small Hours, and Typika)

Taking the classes "for credit" means you can get feedback on your singing and access to all the learning tools for each class. You can also view the classes "as a guest" if you just want to see what is taught. For complete information and registration forms, see <https://mci.archpitt.org/classes/>. If you send in a registration form, contact me directly so I can add you to the class immediately.

—In August, we will begin group cantor practice and training. All are invited to join to improve their skills.

FEAST OF THE PROPHET ELIJAH: The feast of the Prophet Elijah is a Simple Holyday on July 20. It is customary to bless vehicles on this day because Elijah rode into Heaven on a fiery chariot. Because Fr. Lewis will be away, we will bless vehicles after each liturgy on the weekend of July 23/24
