PAVILION PROJECT UPDATE: *The engineering work has been completed and we are ready to resubmit the plans to Roswell. Roswell usually takes 1-2 weeks to review, and we should then be supplied with the appropriate permits. When we receive the permits, they will be submitted to the Eparchy of Passaic for approval, and we will then be able to begin construction.*

From Rt. Rev. Archpriest James G. Some members of the staff had family situations to address, which required their immediate attention. The ECL can now return to its previous production schedule and the copy deadline for the November issue is Friday, October 21. Thank you very much for your patience and understanding.

FEAST OF THE PROTECTION OF THE THEOTOKOS:

There are several stories and dates of events which this feast points towards, but the situation remains the same: The Theotokos appeared in the church of Blachernae in Constantinople around the year 911, to pray with St. Andrew, the Fool for Christ, and to spread her mantle over the faithful for protection against a Barbarian invasion and/or a plague. Please see the insert about this important feast of how the Theotokos protects those who go to Her for comfort.

FR. LEWIS TO ATTEND PRIEST RETREAT: Fr. Lewis will be attending the annual Eparchial Priest Retreat in New Jersey on Sept. 26-29. If there are any pastoral emergencies, please contact your local Catholic Church, and let Fr. Lewis know.
