Arrowhead Campground

Shaded by loblolly pines and oaks, Arrowhead Campground's 50 campsites sit a quarter mile from Badin Lake—a hot spot for water sports.

Open year-round, the campground is suited for tent and RV camping. Sites 12 to 45 have electricity. Each site has a picnic table, grill, lantern post and fire ring.

For drinking water, six water spigots are available. A bathhouse with flush toilets and hot showers is in the campground. Alcohol is prohibited. Keep pets on leashes.

For recreation, visitors can walk the .75-mile paved trail that loops around the campground.

Off-highway-vehicle trails are 2.5 miles from Arrowhead, and a boat ramp is just a half-mile away. Badin Lake offers a boater's paradise, from waterskiing to cruising to sailing.

In addition, paved connectors from the campground lead to the 5.6-mile Badin Lake Trail for hiking. The trail traces most of Badin Lake's edge. The lake offers a wealth of water recreation.

Electrical hookup sites: $15/night.
Sites with no hookups: $12/night.
Double-site hookups: $30/night
Double sites with no hookups: $24/night.

Cove Boat Ramp

For launching trailered boats, a ramp on Badin Lake is near Arrowhead Campground. The ramp offers access to Badin Lake Hiking Trail.

Deep Water Trail Camp

Deep Water Trail Camp is a primitive camp that is located in a field. No facilities are provided.

Holt's Picnic Area

Visitors can eat lunch and fish at Holt's Picnic Area on Badin Lake. Vault toilets are available.

Badin Lake Group Camp

Offering tent and RV camping, this camp has three sites with fire rings, tables, tent pads, showers and toilets. A $40-per-night fee is charged.

Available through reservations only. Reserve sites at recreation.gov or call (877) 444-6777.

King's Mountain Point

The King's Mountain Point day-use area offers four accessible fishing piers, parking and a paved trail. Call (877) 444-6777 or go to recreation.gov to reserve a picnic shelter

Uwharrie Hunt Camp

Uwharrie Hunt Camp offers eight tent-camping sites with water and vault toilets. Each site includes a table, grill and fire ring. The fee is $5 per night.

TO RESERVE A CAMPSITE:

To make reservations at Arrowhead, Badin Lake, Badin Lake Group and Canebrake Horse campgrounds, call 877-444-6777; TDD: 877-833-6777 or visit: recreation.gov.

Be sure to make reservations up to 240 days in advance or as late as three days before arrival.

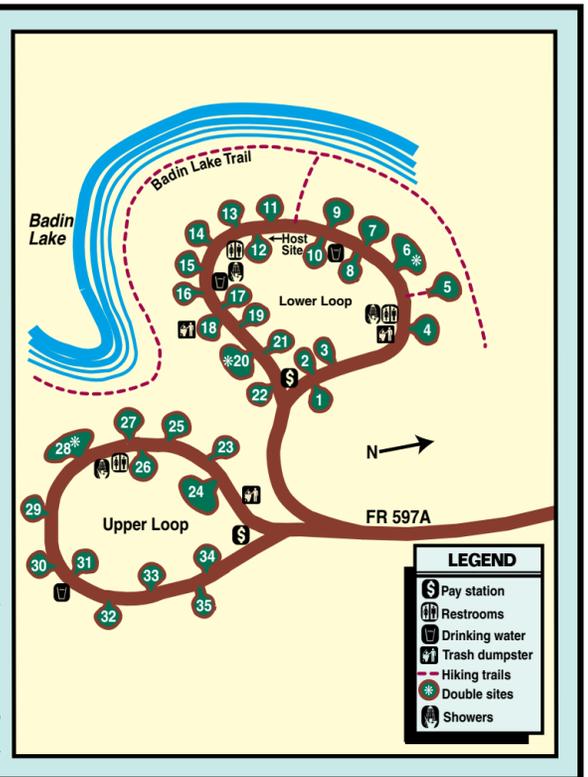

Badin Lake Campground

Open year-round, the Badin Lake Campground offers 34 sites for tent or RV camping. Each site has a picnic table, grill, fire rings, lantern post and tent pad. Drinking water spigots, flush toilets and hot showers. The campground is suited for car or RV camping, but no electric hook-ups are available.

Launch your canoe from the lakeshore or drive two miles to the Cove Boat Ramp to launch a boat from a trailer. The 5.6-mile Badin Lake Trail is easy to access.

Single sites: is $12 per night
Double sites: $24 per night.

Alcohol is prohibited. Keep pets on leashes and controlled.

Tread lightly

- Stay on designated trails. Mountain bikers can ride on off-highway-vehicle trails and trails, but they must have an OHV-trail pass.
- Resist the urge to create new routes and short cuts. Shortcutting switchbacks is prohibited.
- Some trails are very eroded and are closed. Help restore these trails by not riding on them. Avoid wet trails and wheel spins.
- Be sure spark arresters work and make sure all campfires are dead out. Remember: you are responsible for any fire you start.
- Keep noise levels down. Please respect others who visit the forest to get away from noise.

- Do not harass wildlife.
- Carry a litter bag and pack out all trash. Learn and use no-trace camping techniques.
- Avoid temporarily tying stock to trees. Use a highline with tree-saver straps to tether animals.

Camping regulations

- Primitive camping is allowed, except in designated wildlife fields, trailhead parking lots or where signs specifically state "No Camping."
- Stay no more than 14 consecutive days at forest.
- Camp at least 200 feet from streams and trails.
- Camping is not permitted at day-use areas.
- Showers are available at campgrounds for $3.
- Keep pets on leashes and under control.
