We're here to help

We offer a simple and efficient 4 step process to selling shares in deceased estates. This friendly service enables executors or accountants, financial planners or solicitors on behalf of executors to sell or transfer shares in deceased estates.

How our process works

1 Complete the form

Complete the application form and read through the Financial Services Guide.

Application form

If you require non-advisory share trading authority forms, please contact hyeoh@yocsecurities.com or 0435 363 428

2 Send us your form

Email application form, non-advisory share trading authority along with certified copy of:

- Probate
- Death Certificate
- Executor's drivers licence or passport
- Holding/dividend statements of shares to be sold

Note: The shares are held on either a Security Reference Number (SRN) or a CHESS Registered Number (HIN) details of which are located at the top right-hand side of the shareholding or dividend statement). For CHESS Holdings, please email contact@deceasedestatesharesales.com to find out the additional steps required to sell the shares.

3 Sell Shares

We sell the shares at the prevailing market price. You receive an emailed copy of the contract note, confirming the sale has been completed.

4 Settlement

Sale proceeds are credited to the estate bank account 2 business days (ASX settlement days), after the sale has completed.
