Committee Updates -

II. Treasurer's Report

- A. Foam-a-Palooza broke even with $11 in revenue. Goal of fall event is to break even, centered more as a community event.
- B. Fifth and Emory restaurant night $72
- C. Freddy's restaurant night $135
- D. Patriots Pledge - $3900 pledged. Goal was $3000, so exceeded expectations
- E. Trivia Night - $13,578 in revenue. Expenses around $5000. Net of $7k.
- F. Teacher Allocations - $250 for full time staff. Almost $2k has been paid out so far this year.
- G. Mazuma Bank account is open. They offer the largest sponsorship for Trivia Night.

III. Trivia Night Recap

- A. Venue was great, still working on final numbers.
- B. Will need new food next year, current food vendor will not be here next year.
- C. $6,871 from auction. Remaining revenue came from tickets, drink tickets.
- D. Open to ideas for next year.
- E. One idea - do auction in school gym, bring in small businesses to sell crafts, charge for booths.

IV. Foam-a-Palooza

- A. Broke even, which is great. Even more ideas for next year. Goal was to keep it chill since it was the first year venturing away from the carnival. Great turnout, kids enjoyed, so next year will continue and bring more ideas in.

V. Books, Bingo, and Beautiful Music

- A. December 4th, will start with book fair at 5:30PM, concert at 6PM, bingo right after.

VI. Restaurant Nights

- A. Next one in January for Jose Peppers
- B. Chipotle for March 10th
- C. Chick-fil-A in Spring, sometime in April

VII. Upcoming Events

- A. Me and My Guy - April 11th, groovy 70s theme
- B. Sons Plus One - sometime in February, not scheduled yet. Ideas: Main Event, Craft Putt

VII. Principal Report

- A. Ms. Donzilla will work with committee to organize more community based events to help PRE parents get more face time with other parents.
- B. For winter class party, communicate to classroom coordinators that holiday craft should be winter themed, not Christmas themed.
- C. Make food drive an annual event.

Motion to adjourn called by Lauren McMaster, seconded by Lexi Trinkle at 7:17PM.
