We are all in this together. Fusion Safety is offering a 10% discount to our customers who choose to convert class time from in-person to remote. Please contact us with your specific training needs.

Fusion is offering live instructed online classes.

To aid in the effort of slowing the spread of Coronavirus Fusion will be offering a variety of classes remotely. We will have a live instructor in charge of each class and will be able to instruct attendees with the same quality of training as an in-person instructor. We will be offering a 10% discount to any company that wishes to participate in these classes. Let Fusion help you maintain a safe work environment during this uncertain time.
