SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

LISTENING AND RESPONDING

There are three interwoven themes in today's readings: listening to God, faith vs. good works, and losing our life in order to find it. How are they related?

The Suffering Servant of Isaiah undergoes much distress and ridicule, but is able to bear it because he has listened to the promptings of God day after day.

The psalm tells us that God listens, too. God hears our prayers for help and is always ready to save us. As our faith deepens, so does our desire to do the works of justice and charity that build up the reign of God. God directs our actions in ways we often cannot see, and we don't always see the results. We are called upon in faith to trust that what we do is enough, and that willingness to listen to God's promptings will lead us in the right way.

Entrance Antiphon

Give peace, O Lord, to those who wait for you, that your prophets be found true. Hear the prayers of your servant, and of your people Israel.

Alleluia

Communion Antiphon

I am the light of the world, says the Lord; whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.

A Prayer for Catechists

Loving God, Creator of all things, you call us to be in relationship with you and others.

Thank you for calling me to be a catechist, for the opportunity to share with others what you have given to me.

May all those with whom I share the gift of faith discover how you are present in all things.

May they come to know you, the one true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.

May the grace of the Holy Spirit guide my heart and lips, so that I may remain constant in loving and praising you.

May I be a witness to the Gospel and a minister of your truth. May all my words and actions reflect your love.

Amen

SPECIAL INTENTION MASS

If you wish to reserve an intention for one of our scheduled Masses, please contact the Parish Office, preferably in person. The recommended donation is $10.00 per Mass. If you wish for the intention to appear in the bulletin, it must be requested before the bulletin deadline for that week.

You may choose to remember someone who is deceased or you can pray for the special intention of yourself or someone you know. Many people like to remember a deceased family member on their birthday or on the anniversary of their death.

Being remembered in a Mass also makes a nice birthday gift for a living friend or relative.

PROPER POSTURE

It is impossible for the Church to remain on its feet if it doesn't get on its knees.

AROUND THE DIOCESE

IGNATIAN SILENT RETREAT: THE PERSON EXAMEN PRAYER

You are invited to participate in the Ignatian Silent Retreat, October 12-14, at the Redemptorist Renewal Center (Picture Rocks).

From Friday evening through Sunday noon, we will be led by Fr. Chris Schroeder, a Jesuit priest and experienced retreat director.

In the silence, we open our hearts to hear God's voice. In five presentations, two Masses and optional individual sessions, we will reflect on the power of the Examen prayer to help us grow in the awareness of God - present, active and loving - in our lives.

Growing in awareness of God giving to us, we in turn grow in gratitude and generosity toward God and neighbor, ready to follow where God leads.

More information is available from Ann S. Dickson at andickson@theriver.com or 520-234-2140, or Deacon Paul N. Duckro at pduckro@diocesetucson.org or 520-349-0615. You can also check out the Ignatian Silent Retreat page on Facebook.

RACHEL'S VINEYARD RETREAT

Rachel's Vineyard weekends are a beautiful opportunity for any person who has struggled with the emotional or spiritual pain of abortion. The weekend is a very specific process designed to help you experience the mercy and compassion of God. It is also an opportunity to surface and release repressed feelings of anger, shame, guilt, and grief. For more information call 520-743-6777 or visit www.rachelsvineyardtucson.org. You don't have to suffer in silence any more.

The next Rachel's Vineyard Retreats will be held September 21-23, 2018 in Yuma and February 15-17, 2019 in Tucson.

FAITH OR WORKS?

Sometimes we think the argument of faith vs. works started with the Reformation. But the second reading shows that it was already being debated in New Testament times. The simplified version of the debate has the Reformers saying that faith alone is all we need to be saved, while the Catholic side says we have to do good to be saved. Actually, they are both right. The idea of works being necessary for salvation probably goes back to the Old Covenant emphasis on the law and the commandments. They believed that their religious practices set them apart from the pagans around them. Then Jesus came to show that only God is Holy. Our holiness comes from loving God and loving others. Because Jesus is the Son of God, he is the best way to know God. So believing in Jesus is not just believing that he exists. We believe in a Person who loves us and showed us that God is our Father. He gives us life and protects us; he supports us and also lets us learn from our mistakes. Then he forgives us, showing that he loves us even when we turn away from him. So if we truly believe in Jesus we follow his commandment of love, because we love him so much we want to be just like him. We help others, not to make us look good, but to show them how good God is. So you cannot truly believe in Jesus without wanting to help others to know and love him too. Jesus' way of saying that in today's gospel was to take up our cross and follow him. That is truly a work of faith.

Brothers and Sisters in Christ, I am Bishop Edward Weisenburger, and I'd like to address briefly with you the events that are unfolding on the East Coast.

After many years of diligent efforts focused on creating and implementing strong Safe Environment Protocols, and removing offenders from among our ranks, it now feels that the wounds that were healing have once again been torn open by events on the East Coast. In addition to the words I'm speaking to you now, you may also have seen on our Diocesan web page the statement released today by Cardinal Daniel DiNardo, President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Cardinal DiNardo, along with senior Conference leadership, is calling for three significant actions to be taken quickly. The first is a full and thorough investigation of issues surrounding Archbishop McCarrick's abuse. The second is to create structures that facilitate easier reporting of abuse or misconduct on the part of a bishop. The third point in his plan is to advocate for better procedures to resolve complaints against bishops. He rightly notes that lay leadership will be critical and I thoroughly agree. I find the approach Cardinal DiNardo is calling for to be strong, timely, and appropriate. I fully endorse the approach outlined by Cardinal DiNardo and will lend my voice and my effort to seeing its implementation.

On a more personal level as your bishop, I would call to mind that we here in the Diocese of Tucson went through our own time of great suffering approximately 14 years ago as we came to acknowledge and repent for the sins of our past. At that time we had the wonderful leadership of Bishop Kicanas whose outreach to victims, as well as his establishment of firm Safe Environment Protocols, restored the trust of our local people. Let us keep the victims of Pennsylvania, over the last 70 years, as well as those who were harmed anywhere by clergy, in our prayers. And of course, be assured of no lessening of Safe Environment procedures, due diligence, and firm response on the part of leadership in our beloved Diocese today.

For myself, and on behalf of my brother bishops, I humbly apologize for the pain and anguish this situation has caused not only the immediate victims of abuse but also for you, the Catholic faithful—the Body of Christ. I also ask your prayers for our good and faithful clergy, most especially our parish priests who continue to serve us with great generosity and devotion in the midst of these very challenging times.

May God bless you all.
