On Sunday, September 30, the Reynoldsburg-Truro Historical Society (RTHS) will be hosting a multi-vendor event at our Museum. A portion of the sales will be donated to the Museum for general operating funds.

This Event will be at the RTHS Museum:
1485 Jackson Street, Reynoldsburg, OH 43068

(across the street from the Hannah Ashton Middle School, one block south of Main Street)

We have parking in front of the building along the street, and a parking lot in the rear of the Museum. Our back entrance is directly off the parking lot and leads straight to the Meeting Room where you will meet a portion of our Vendors!

RTHS is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization. We do not receive any funding from the City of Reynoldsburg. The museum is owned by the members and operates entirely with a volunteer staff. We support our Museum through membership dues, donations, fundraisers, and Gift Shop sales.

This fundraiser is the first of it's kind ever held in our facility and we hope you will join us!

Avon – Laila Szabo

Standing For More Than Just Beauty

The Avon Company has been in business for 130 years, and they offer make-up, skin care, bath & beauty products, gift items, home décor, candles, clothing, jewelry items, as well as products made specifically for men and children.

This is the company that puts mascara on lashes and food on tables. That fights wrinkles with one hand and breast cancer with the other. That knows the value of a perfect lip, but still opens its mouth and speaks out against domestic violence and for women's financial independence. This is the company that not only brings beauty to doors, but also opens them. This is Avon. The company that for over a century has stood for beauty, innovation, optimism and, above all, for women.
