- (1) The Permanent Fund, shall consist of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) of the funds in possession of the Board on June 26, 1958, and any subsequent bequests for charitable purpose unless otherwise designated, together with any funds allocated to this fund by subsequent action of the Grand Commandery.
 - (2) The Temporary Fund, which shall consist of all funds and property in the hands on the Board on June 26, 1958, not reserved to the Permanent Fund. The Board shall also carry all of the income from interest, dividends, and profits received from the Permanent Fund and from the Temporary Fund, together with any funds allocated to this fund by the Grand Commandery, to the Temporary Fund. The Temporary Fund shall be disbursed by the Board as it may deem best for the relief of the destitute and the distressed; provided, that if a constituent Commandery in Iowa has authorized and has paid from their funds an amount of money for such purpose, and has given the board official notice of such action, the Board will immediately pay to such Commandery an amount equal to one-half of such charitable or benevolent contribution. (1960)
- d) The Board shall hold an annual meeting at a convenient time and place as early as practicable following the adjournment of each Stated Conclave, at which time it shall organize by electing a Chairman/Secretary and a Treasurer. (2007)
- e) Special Meetings of the Board may be held at any time or place on call of the Chairman or on written request of a majority of the Board. Due and reasonable notice shall be given each member, and actual expenses of attendance shall be paid by the Board.
- f) Three members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.
- g) The Board shall make a written report of all its transactions during the period of January 1 and December 31 of each calendar year at each Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery, attaching thereto an itemized statement of its accounts showing all receipts and disbursements, together with an itemized list of investments and bank balances. (1990)
- h) There shall be appropriated annually five per cent of the receipts allocated to the Grand Commandery General Fund from fees and dues for the Temporary Fund; provided, however, that this appropriation shall be paid over in whole or in part only as necessary to avoid depletion of the Temporary Fund.
- i) The Board shall invest, from time to time, with the approval of the Grand Commander, all funds not necessary for current expenses in Government insured accounts or U. S. Government, State, or Municipal Bonds. (1990)

CHAPTER 9: TACTICS, INSTRUCTION, INSPECTION

Section 336 Tactics.

The only authorized Tactics for this Jurisdiction is The Iowa Knights Templar Tactics and Manual promulgated by this Grand Commandery; provided, that for the purpose of competitive or exhibition drill, the Tactics approved by the Grand Encampment shall govern.

Section 337 Board of Instruction.

- a) All matters relating to the tactics, to exemplification of the work, to inspection, instruction, equipment, and dress parade shall be under the supervision of the Board of Instruction.
- b) The Board shall consist of the Grand Commander, ex-officio with the right to vote, and three Past Commanders, one of whom shall be appointed each year by the Grand Commander at the time of his installation to serve for three years.
- c) In case of a vacancy caused by death, resignation, removal from the State, suspension or expulsion, or other inability to act, the Grand Commander shall fill such vacancy by appointment for the unexpired term.
- d) The annual meeting of the Board shall be held following the Stated Conclave, at which time it shall organize by electing a Chairman and a Secretary.
- e) Special Meetings of the Board may be held at any time and place, on call of the Chairman, or of a majority of the Board.
- f) Three members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.
- g) The Board shall make a report to the Grand Commandery at each Stated Conclave of its transactions for the preceding Templar year, which shall include an itemized financial statement showing all receipts and disbursements.
- h) Each year the Board shall submit to the Grand Commandery a budget of its expenses for the ensuing year.
- i) Members of the Board shall not receive compensation, but shall receive actual expenses of travel in attending the Annual School of Instruction called by the Board, Stated Conclave of the Grand Commandery, the Annual meeting of the Board, and any Special Meetings of the Board. (1981)
- j) The Board shall have such powers and prerogatives as are necessary to the proper performance of its duties.

Section 338 Instructors

- (a) On request of a Frater recommended by a Knight Templar Instructor or Inspector the Board shall hold an examination of such Frater testing his proficiency in the Ritual and Tactics. If the examination is satisfactory the Frater shall receive a Certificate of Proficiency. If a Commander or Past Commander, and if he is to be assigned by the Board for instruction of Commanderies, he shall be commissioned a Knight Templar Instructor and must be proficient in the Ritual and Tactics, but not to include the Prelates work, such Commission may not be renewed more than three times. If he is to be assigned by the Board of inspection of Commanderies, he shall be commissioned a Knight Templar Inspector and must be proficient in all the Ritual and Tactics of the Order of the Temple. (1972)
- (b) An Annual School of Instruction will be scheduled by the Board of Instruction for all Commissioned Instructors and Inspectors; and, they shall be individually recertified every three (3) years. Commissions shall be subject to cancellation by the Board for just cause. (1986)
- (c) It is the duty of all Instructors and Inspectors to attend the Annual School of Instruction called by the Board, to make Inspections, to hold Schools of Instruction, and to render such other services as the Board may require. (1981)

(d) Instructors and Inspectors shall not receive compensation, but shall receive actual expenses incurred when holding inspection or schools of instruction, each such expense to be subject to approval of the Chairman of the Board.

(e) Instructors and Inspectors who have assisted the Board in instructing or inspecting a Constituent Commandery, or at an Annual School of Instruction called by the Board shall receive mileage. (1981)

(f) The Chairman of the Board shall certify to the Committee on Mileage those entitled to receive mileage.

(g) An Inspector may wear a gold stripe on the left sleeve, three inches from cuff above the sleeve insignia. An Instructor may wear a silver stripe worn the same as inspector. The Chairman of the Board may wear two gold stripes. (2006)

Section 339 Inspection.

(a) Every Commandery within this Grand Jurisdiction shall be inspected in accordance with a schedule and written instructions to be issued by the Grand Commander. The exact date of such inspection is to be determined by the assigned Inspector and approved by the Board. (1968)

(b) If any Commander shall fail to set a date for inspection satisfactory to the Board, the Grand Commander, when notified of such failure by the Board, may send a Special Representative at the expense of the offending Commandery to report as to the cause of such failure, or he may arrest the Jewel of the Commander, as to him shall seem best.

(c) The conditions and requirements of inspection shall be such as may be promulgated from time to time by the Board or as ordered by the Grand Commander. (1968)

(d) The Inspectors shall make such report to the Board of their Inspections as the Board may require.

(e) On receipt of the Inspection Report, the Board shall review the same and check such items as require attention. One copy of the Report shall then be mailed to the Grand Commander. (1968)

(h) If the report of the Inspector of a Commandery indicates that the Commandery, its officers and or floor workers have not complied with the uniform requirements of the Statutes of the Grand Commandery, the Board shall communicate such information promptly to the Grand Commander.

Section 340 Instruction.

(a) The Board shall hold Annual Schools of Instruction on the days and times prescribed by the Executive Committee. (1980)

(b) It is the duty of all officers of each Constituent Commandery to attend the Annual School of Instruction to which their Commandery has been assigned. (1981)

(c) The Instructors shall make such reports of schools held by them as the Board may require.

(d) The Board shall report to the Grand Commander the results of such schools, and shall include a synopsis thereof in its annual report to the Grand Commandery.

CHAPTER 10: MILEAGE

Section 341.

(a) For actual attendance at the Stated Conclave, the Grand Commandery shall pay to each of its officers, to each Recorder of a Constituent Commandery, and all members of the Grand Commandery, if present in person, twenty cents (20¢) per mile each way, by the shortest practicable all-weather highway; provided that no mileage shall be paid to anyone who shall not be present at the Stated Conclave at least two days, except in the case that the Annual Conclave is held in conjunction with either, and or both, the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Iowa, and or, the Grand Council of Royal & Select Masters of Iowa, then the required time of attendance and the amount of mileage shall be determined by the Executive Committee; nor shall mileage be paid to anyone in more than one capacity; nor shall greater mileage be paid than actually traveled, nor in any case for a greater distance than that between the member's Home Commandery and place of Stated Conclave; nor shall mileage be paid beyond the State of Iowa. (2007)

(b) A per Diem of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per day will be paid to any Sir Knight entitled to receive mileage under section 341(a). (1989)

(c) Mileage will be paid to all Sir Knights participating in the Drill Team Competition during the Annual Conclave at the rate of twenty cents (20¢) per mile, each way, by the shortest all-weather highway from his Home Commandery, if, he is not entitled to mileage under Section 341 (a). The Chairman of the Committee on Drill shall certify to the Committee on Mileage, those who are entitled to mileage under this paragraph. (2007)

(d) Wherever reference is made in these Statues to allowance for actual expenses incurred in attendance at special meetings, cost of travel shall not exceed mileage calculated by the application of the applicable provisions of Paragraph (a) above. (1992)

Section 341.

(a) For actual attendance at the Stated Conclave, the Grand Commandery shall pay to each of its officers, to each Recorder of a Constituent Commandery, and all members of the Grand Commandery, if present in person, twenty cents (20¢) per mile each way, by the shortest practicable all-weather highway; provided that no mileage shall be paid to anyone who shall not be present at the Stated Conclave at least two days, except in the case that the Annual Conclave is held in conjunction with either, and or both, the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Iowa, and or, the Grand Council of Royal & Select Masters of Iowa, then the required time of attendance and the amount of mileage shall be determined by the Executive Committee; nor shall mileage be paid to anyone in more than one capacity; nor shall greater mileage be paid than actually traveled, nor in any case for a greater distance than that between the member's Home Commandery and place of Stated Conclave; nor shall mileage be paid beyond the State of Iowa. (2007)

(b) A per Diem of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per day will be paid to any Sir Knight entitled to receive mileage under section 341(a). (1989)

(c) Mileage will be paid to all Sir Knights participating in the Drill Team Competition during the Annual Conclave at the rate of twenty cents (20¢) per mile, each way, by the shortest all-weather highway from his Home Commandery, if, he is not entitled to mileage under Section 341 (a). The Chairman of the Committee on Drill shall certify to the Committee on Mileage, those who are entitled to mileage under this paragraph. (2007)

(d) Wherever reference is made in these Statues to allowance for actual expenses incurred in attendance at special meetings, cost of travel shall not exceed mileage calculated by the application of the applicable provisions of Paragraph (a) above. (1992)

CHAPTER 11: CONSTITUENT COMMANDERIES

Section 342 Of Whom Composed. A Commandery consists of the following Knights Templar, who will remain members until such membership shall have been terminated by death, demission, expulsion, or suspension:

- a) All those to whom a Charter has been issued.
- b) All Knights Templar who shall have been elected to membership therein.
- c) All those who have received the Order of the Temple therein, except where the Order shall have been conferred for and at the request of another Commandery.
- d) All those who, at the request of the Commandery, shall have received the Order of the Temple in another Commandery.
- e) Active plural membership may be held in 2 or more Commanderies under the jurisdiction of the Grand Commandery of Iowa, or in 2 or more Iowa Commanderies and 2 or more Constituent Commanderies of another jurisdiction, provided, that the laws of such other jurisdiction so provides, subject to the provisions of Section 190 of The Statutes of the Grand Encampment. (1992)

Section 343 Seal.

- (a) Every Constituent Commandery shall have a Seal, upon which shall be inscribed the name and number of the Commandery.
- (b) An impression of said Seal shall be deposited with the Grand Recorder.
- (c) The Seal shall be in the custody of the Recorder, who shall affix it to all papers requiring the same.

Section 344 Territorial Jurisdiction.

- (a) Each Constituent Commandery shall have exclusive jurisdiction over petitioners for the Orders who reside within the corporate limits of the city in which the Commandery is located, except as provided in Section 148 of the Statutes of The Grand Encampment. (1971)
- (b) All Constituent Commanderies shall have concurrent jurisdiction over petitioners for the Orders who reside in any other place than within the corporate limits of a city in which a Commandery is located, subject to the provisions of Section 303 above.

Section 345 Conclaves The Conclaves of a Commandery shall be:

- (a) Stated, which shall be held at least monthly on a fixed weekday at such hour and place as may be specified in the Charter or in the By-Laws; except that by an appropriate by-law any Constituent Commandery may eliminate such Conclaves during one or two months annually.
- (b) Special, which may be called by the Commander or set by action of the Commandery, which shall be only for such business as may be prescribed by law, and which shall be held at the place for Stated Conclaves, except when dispensation has been received from the Grand Commander to hold a Special Conclave at another place.

Section 346 Officers.

- (a) The Officers of a Commandery are:
 - (1) A Commander,
 - (2) A Generalissimo,
 - (3) A Captain General,
 - (4) A Senior Warden,

- (5) A Junior Warden,
- (6) A Prelate,
- (7) A Treasurer,
- (8) A Recorder,
- (9) A Standard Bearer,
- (10) A Sword Bearer,
- (11) A Warder,
- (12) A Sentinel,
- (13) A First Guard,
- (14) A Second Guard,
- (15) A Third Guard.

(b) The Commander, Generalissimo, Captain General, Treasurer, and Recorder shall be elected by ballot; the remaining officers shall be appointed by the Commander at the time of his installation.

(c) No Knight Templar shall be eligible to any office in a Commandery unless he shall be at the time a member thereof in good standing.

(d) The duties of the officers of a Commandery shall be such as are traditionally appropriate to their respective stations or as may be assigned to them as set forth in Grand Encampment and Grand Commandery laws. (1962)

(e) Section 347 Commander.

(f) The Commander shall be ex-officio a member of each committee and board of the Commandery with the right to vote.

(g) Section 348 Treasurer.

(h) It is the duty of the Treasurer:

(i) To take charge of all funds of the Commandery

(j) To deposit all such funds in the banks or other financial institutions designated by the Commandery or the Trustees of the Commandery, under such conditions as the Commandery or the Trustees may impose.

(k) To payout funds of the Commandery only upon warrants signed by the Commander and the Recorder.

(l) To render to the Commandery annually, or to the Commander at any time upon receipt of a written request signed by the Commander and the Recorder, a true and correct detailed account of all receipts and disbursements, from whom received and to whom paid, with vouchers for all disbursements.

(m) To submit his books and accounts for inspection and audit at any time to the Commander, and annually to the Auditing Committee.

(n) To deliver promptly to his successor in office all funds, records, and other property of the Commandery in his possession. A failure to do so shall constitute a Templar offense, a violation of his vow of office and a breach of his bond.

Section 349A Recorder.

It is the duty of the Recorder:

(a) To perform all such duties as are prescribed by the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment, the Statutes, Laws, Rules and Regulations of the Grand Commandery, the By-Laws of his Commandery.

(b) To report to the Grand Recorder on or before the first day of February of each year, on blanks furnished by the Grand Recorder, all such facts and information as may be required.

(c) To remit to the Grand Recorder, on or before the first day of February of each year all dues, fees, and assessments due the Grand Encampment and the Grand Commandery.

(d) In case of a failure to make such report and remittance by the time specified in paragraphs (a) and (c) above, the Grand Commander may, with the advice and consent of a majority of the Executive Committee, arrest the Jewel of the Recorder so offending.

(e) If the report is not received by the Grand Recorder by the first day of March, a fine of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per week for each one hundred members or fraction thereof on the rolls of the Commandery shall automatically attach to the Commandery and be payable with the other dues and assessments due the Grand Commandery, and the Grand Recorder shall notify the Commander and the Recorder of the delinquent Commandery. In no case shall the fine be less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

(f) To collect all dues and assessments and to issue receipts therefore, under Seal of the Commandery. (1972)

(g) To receive, duly file, and safely keep all papers and documents of the Commandery.

(h) To issue no warrants upon the Treasurer except in payment of bills approved and ordered paid by the Commandery or in accordance with a resolution duly passed by the Commandery.

(i) To serve on all boards and committees with the right to vote.

(j) To furnish reports to the Grand Recorder on authorized forms monthly as required by the Grand Encampment. Said reports are to be made and mailed within three (3) days after each stated conclave. Failure of the Recorder to make the required report for three consecutive conclaves will automatically attach a fine of Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each missing report. The Grand Recorder shall notify the Commander and Recorder of the delinquent Commandery. The Grand Commander may waive the fine in case of emergencies. (1975)

Section 349B Treasurer-Recorder.

Any Constituent Commandery may, by its By-Laws, provide that the office of its Treasurer and Recorder may be consolidated into one office of Recorder and when so combined, the Recorder shall assume and perform the duties of the Treasurer, as set forth in Section 73. When such action is taken, the permission of the Grand Commandery must be obtained. (1981)

Section 350A Business.

(a) All business of a Commandery shall be transacted in a Conclave of Knights Templar duly opened in its Asylum; except that a Commandery may be opened with a minimum of five Sir Knights in attendance, all who are members of that Commandery with a least one of the five an officer authorized to open the Commandery. (2019)

(b) A Stated Conclave may not be adjourned or postponed to a subsequent date.

(c) Failure of a candidate to present himself for the Orders within twelve months after receiving notice of his election voids the election, and the fees paid shall be forfeited to the Commandery.

Section 350B Qualifications of Petitioners.

(a) In addition to the general qualifications of Section 177 (a) of the Statutes of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the U.S.A., that a petitioner for the Orders must be a Master Mason and Royal Arch Mason affiliated in both Lodge and Chapter, or an affiliated Master Mason who has petitioned a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons for the Capitular degrees, a petitioner for the Orders in a Constituent Commandery of Iowa must also be a Royal and 'Select Master affiliated in a Council of Royal and Select Masters, or must have petitioned a Council of Royal and Select Masters for the Cryptic degrees; provided, however, that none of the Orders of Knighthood shall be conferred upon said petitioner until he shall have received the Royal Arch Degree and Select Master Degree.

(b) A petitioner for Membership in a Constituent Commandery of Iowa, who received the Order of the Temple after January 1, 1963, must be a Royal and Select Master affiliated with a Council, or must have petitioned a Council for the Royal and Select Master degrees. (1993)

(c) A petitioner for Membership by reinstatement from demit, suspension, or for affiliation, who received the Orders of Knighthood prior to January 1, 1963, shall not be required to be a member of a Council of Royal and Select Masters. (1968)

Section 351 Ballot.

(a) The Committee appointed on a petition(s) for the Order of Knighthood or for Membership shall report its findings, in accordance with Section 180 of the Grand Encampment Statutes, at the next Stated Conclave except, that when deemed beneficial for the good of the Order and by unanimous consent of the members present, petition(s) for the Orders or for Membership may be received and balloted upon after receiving the Committee report, at the Stated or Special Conclave at which such petition(s) are read in the Commandery; providing, that in cases of Special Conclaves, requirements of Section 65(b) and 74(a) have been complied with. (1971)

(b) After the report of the Committee to the Commandery, the Commander may in his discretion postpone the ballot thereon until the next Stated Conclave, the announcement of such postponement to be entered on the record; but there shall be no further postponement except by unanimous consent of the Commandery.

(c) Two or more petitions, whether for Orders or Membership, regularly presented, may be balloted upon at one time. If such ballot is unanimous, each petitioner should be declared elected. In the event of the appearance of a black ball in such group ballot, there must be a ballot upon each petition separately. A Commander may order one additional re-ballot before the result of a ballot upon any separate petition has been announced and before any member of the Commandery has left the Asylum.

(d) If the examination of the ballot discloses one black ball, the Commander may order one re-ballot. If two or more black balls have been cast no re-ballot may be taken.

Section 352 Fees for Orders.

(a) No Commandery may confer the Orders for less than Forty Dollars ($40.00).

(b) The fee may not be remitted directly or indirectly.

(c) The fee must in all cases be paid before the Order of Red Cross is conferred. (1971)

Section 353 Election and Installation of Officers.

(a) Election of Officers of Constituent Commanderies shall take place each year at the Stated Conclave in November or December. (2013)

(b) Election must be by secret written ballot. The By-Laws may not be waived nor the ballot cast by the Recorder or other Knight.

(c) The Officers so elected shall be installed at a Stated or Special Conclave in January, unless by a written dispensation of the Grand Commander, a different time shall be permitted. (1996)

Section 354 Distribution of Rituals.

The following rules will govern the distribution and control of all Rituals within the jurisdiction of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Iowa.

(a) Issuance of one Ritual authorized for each Grand Officer, including the three Administrative Officers, for use during his term of office; providing said Sir Knight is not one of the 15 officers of a constituent Commandery. Each Ritual to be receipted for by the Sir Knight receiving same and returned to the Grand Recorder when his term of office expires. All Rituals to be present or accounted for each year at the Grand Conclave and new receipts taken at that time by the Grand Recorder. (2013)

(b) Issuance of one Ritual authorized for each Inspector-Instructor of the Grand Commandery of Iowa for use during his term of service in such capacity; provided said Sir Knight is not one of the officers of the Grand Commandery or of a constituent Commandery. Each Ritual to be receipted for by the Sir Knight receiving same and returned to the Grand Recorder at expiration of his term of service. All Rituals to be present or accounted for each year at the Grand Conclave and new receipts taken at that time by the Grand Recorder. (2013)

(c) Rituals presently assigned to Constituent Commanderies will be leased to them for their use and a deposit of $2.00, (Two Dollars), per each Ritual will be payable to the Grand Recorder immediately. Additional rituals, over the present number may be leased for the use of the Commandery upon deposit of $6.00 (Six Dollars), per copy, with the Grand Recorder. Any Rituals leased by a Constituent Commandery may be replaced upon forwarding same to the Grand Recorder at the exchange cost of $3.00, (Three Dollars), per copy.

(d) Rituals leased to Constituent Commanderies may not be sold to individuals but must remain in custody of the Constituent Commander leased to individual Sir Knights. Any Ritual not so delivered to the incoming Commander at time of installation upon request will be deemed to be lost and the Commandery will forfeit the deposit previously paid to the Grand Recorder. The Commandery then may request to replace such Ritual immediately by payment of $10.00, (Ten Dollars), to the Grand Recorder. (2013)

Section 355 Dues and Assessments.

(a) Each Commandery shall levy and collect such annual dues per capita assessments as may be needed to pay its expenses.

(b) Annual dues shall not be less than Four Dollars ($4.00) plus Grand Encampment assessment. (1982)

(c) Commandery and Grand Commandery dues and assessments shall be due and payable on the first day of January of each year for which said dues and assessments were levied, and the same shall become delinquent on the first day of July of the same year.

(d) The dues of a member and any assessment may be remitted by vote of the Commandery if in its judgment the member is unable to pay.

(e) In event of such remission, notice and reason for remission shall be given to the Grand Recorder in 30 calendar days of such action for approval by the Executive Committee. Commanderies will be responsible for the Grand Encampment fees and assessments for remissions not approved. (2010)

(f) Assessments for celebrations or social entertainments shall not be made on members not participating therein.

(g) Any member who dies during a year with dues unpaid, said dues shall be automatically remitted so far as the Annual Returns to the Grand Recorder is concerned and a space provided on the Annual Returns for 'Members dies – dues unpaid.' (1972)

Section 356 Delinquent Dues.

(a) It is the duty of the Recorder to collect all dues before they become delinquent and to use every effort to prevent delinquency.

(b) When the dues of any member are delinquent, the Commandery may remit them if the member is unable to pay, or it may direct the Recorder to remit them if the member is unable to pay, or it may direct the Recorder to notify the member of such delinquency and cite him to appear at the November Stated Conclave of the Commandery and show cause why he should not be suspended for non-payment of dues. Such notice must be given at least twenty days prior to the November Stated Conclave. Failure by any member to pay the current dues owed, or receive a remission of such dues, by the conclusion of the November Stated Conclave of the Commandery shall be suspended for non-payment of dues. (2013)

(c) Service of such notice may be personal, that is, by delivery by a Knight to the delinquent member of a copy thereof, a statement of which service shall be endorsed on the notice and returned to the Commandery, duly signed by the Knight making such service; or such service may be by letter mailed to the delinquent member by the Recorder, as hereinafter provided.

(d) Service is complete when the delinquent member receives the copy, or when the letter addressed to the delinquent member at his last known place of residence is mailed.

(e) In case of service by letter the Recorder shall make due return thereof to the Commandery at the next Stated Conclave.

(f) In case of service by either method, the return must be entered of record.

(g) If after such service the member fails to pay or to appear, or appearing is unable to show a good excuse for his delinquency, which the Commandery shall judge, he may be suspended by a majority vote.

(h) A member so suspended who pays his delinquent and current dues within one year after suspension is thereby reinstated without action of the Commandery, but the Recorder shall make proper entry thereof upon the records and shall report the payment to the Commandery at its next Stated Conclave, and the Commander shall thereupon state that the member is reinstated. (1981)

(i) After a lapse of one year, the member so suspended, by payment of one year delinquent plus the current dues and after favorable action of the Commandery on his Petition for Reinstatement, shall be fully reinstated. The petition must be presented at a Stated Conclave and stand for action at the next Stated Conclave. (1981)

(j) If such dues are paid with a view of reinstatement they shall be refunded to the delinquent if the Commandery refuses to reinstate.

(k) No dues shall be charged during suspension.

Section 357 Trustees.

(a) A Commandery shall provide in its By-Laws for a Board of Trustees to consist of three members.

(b) The Trustees shall be elected by secret written ballot, but if none are elected the Commander, Generalissimo, and Captain General shall ex-officio constitute the Board.

(c) The Board of Trustees shall possess such powers and perform such duties as the By-Laws may prescribe, subject to the approval of the Grand Commandery.

Section 358 Discipline.

The Order of Knights Templar being founded upon the Christian religion and the practice of the Christian virtues, and a due observance thereof being incumbent upon all members of the Order, it is hereby declared unknighly for any Commandery to assemble in Conclave on the Christian Sabbath for any other purpose thanthat of assisting in paying honors to a deceased Knight, or for religious services. (1965)

Section 359 - Repealed

Section 360 Fifty-Year Membership.

(a) Any Knight Templar who shall have completed fifty years of membership in a Commandery and who shall then be in good standing in a Lodge, Chapter, and Commandery, shall be exempt from dues and assessments, such exemption to commence January 1 in the year following the date he completed fifty years of membership.

(b) The Grand Recorder shall be required to identify those Knights eligible to receive 50-year certificates, issue said Certificate of Fifty Years Membership signed by the Grand Commander, attested by the Grand Recorder and under the Seal of the Grand Commandery, suitable for framing, to be presented to the member by his Commandery. (2006)

(c) Upon satisfactory proof of such membership, furnished by the Recorder, the Grand Recorder shall issue a Certificate of Fifty Years Membership signed by the Grand Commander, attested by the Grand Recorder and under the Seal of the Grand Commandery, suitable for framing, to be presented to the member by his Commandery. (2006)

CHAPTER 12: NEW COMMANDERIES

Section 361 Dispensations.

(a) New Commanderies may be formed by the Grand Commandery subject to the conditions provided by the Grand Encampment.

(b) No Dispensation shall issue unless the Petition therefor shall ask such favor under a distinctive Templar name.

(c) No dispensation shall issue until a fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) shall have been paid to the Grand Recorder.

(d) All Dispensations shall bear the signature of the Grand Commander, attested by the Grand Recorder, under the Seal of the Grand Commandery.

Section 362 Constituting Chartered Commanderies.

(a) As soon as convenient after the Grand Commandery shall have granted a Charter to a Commandery, the Grand Commander or his Personal Representative shall convene the Knights, constitute the new Commandery and open a Conclave, after which an election of officers shall be held.

(b) Immediately after the election he shall install the officers chosen.

(c) He shall require the Recorder to forward forthwith to the Grand Recorder a roster of the elected officers with full details of the proceedings.

(d) It shall be the duty of the Installing Officer, in delivering Rituals to the newly installed officers, to observe all of the requirements of these Statutes relative to presentation of Rituals.

CHAPTER 13: UNIFORMS

Section 363 Minimum Uniform Requirements.

(a) The Order of Knights Templar is declared to be a uniformed Order.

(b) The purchase of a uniform by a candidate shall be optional.

(c) Every officer of a Commandery shall be required to possess a dress uniform prior to his installation. (1977)

(d) repealed 2017

Section 364 Public Appearances.

No Commandery shall appear in public unless its members are in dress or summer uniform, except for church attendance or funerals, subject to provisions of section 214, statutes of the Grand Encampment. (2004)

Section 365 Iowa Regulation Uniform.

The Iowa Regulation Dress Uniform shall consist of a black dress coat, black trousers, black chapeau, black hose, black shoes, white shirt, black four-in-hand necktie, and buff gloves; and when required by the Ritual and Tactics or for Public Appearances, the regulation sword and belt.

The Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Iowa

A Resolution

Be it Resolved:

1. That the Grand Commandery hereby authorize the formation of the not-for-profit Grand York Rite Bodies Corporation (hereafter referred to as the "Corporation");
2. That the Grand Commandry hereafter, and for so long as said Corporation shall continue to exist, shall participate in the activities, governance and support of said Corporation through designating Directors to serve on the Board of Directors of the Corporation;
3. That the Grand Commandry fund a portion of the expenses of said Corporation as a part of the budget approved at the Grand Conclave;
4. That the Corporation be duly authorized to enter into contracts of employment with a Grand Secretary and a Grand Treasurer and such other persons or entities as shall be deemed necessary to perform such duties as may be deemed necessary for the perpetuation and prosperity of the York Rite of Freemasonry in Iowa;
5. That the Corporation may conduct other such business as may be necessary or prudent to maintain the orderly and effective affairs of the three Grand York Bodies it serves, with full understanding that the three Grand York Rite Bodies are, and shall continue to be, the ruling entities and final authorities of the York Rite of Freemasonry in Iowa, insofar as governing decisions are and may be made at the state jurisdictional level;
6. That said Corporation have such powers as are or may be granted under the Code of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Iowa;
7. That said Corporation shall in no way interfere with nor otherwise supplant the election of a Grand Recorder and a Grand Treasurer of the Grand Commandery as described by the Code of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Iowa;
8. That the Grand Commander for the time being and one other of the Dais Officer (e.g., Deputy Grand Commander, Grand Generalissimo, Grand Captain General), serve as directors on the Corporation's Board of Directors;
9. That the Dais Officers of the Grand Commandery shall determine among themselves which of them shall serve as director of the Corporation;
10. That the member of the Board of Directors selected by the Dais Officers should, under normal circumstances, serve a term on the Board of Directors of more than one year;
11. That, should one of the persons set out in paragraph 9 above be elected by another body to serve on the Corporation's Board of Directors, that person shall notify all three Grand York Rite Bodies as to which of the Bodies he will represent on the Board of Directors;
12. That the Grand York Rite Body losing a director under the provisions of paragraph 11 above may select a replacement representative to the Board of Directors of the Corporation.
