Commitment & Expectations:

At RMS, we believe that learning to play the piano is a journey--not a sprint! While we operate on a flexible, month-to-month basis, piano is a long-term skill that develops over time with regular attendance, encouragement, and practice. Here's what to expect:

- One class per week – Consistency is key to progress! Your child's spot is reserved just for them.
- Year-round learning – We hold 46 lessons per year, including summer months, to maintain steady momentum and retention.
- Piano is a long-term skill – Progress doesn't happen overnight. We encourage families to think in terms of years, not weeks.
- If you need to pause – Just let us know by the 15th of the month using our quick Drop Form. That helps us plan and offer your child's spot to another student.
