About the Show

From Tony winners Terrence McNally, Stephen Flaherty and Lynn Ahrens, creators of such Broadway classics as Ragtime and Once On This Island, this dazzling show transports its audience from the twilight of the Russian Empire to the euphoria of Paris in the 1920s, as a brave young woman sets out to discover the mystery of her past. Pursued by a ruthless Soviet officer determined to silence her, Anya enlists the aid of a dashing con man and a lovable ex-aristocrat. Together, they embark on an epic adventure to help her find home, love and family.

Director's Note

Welcome! It's with immense joy that B-CC Theatre presents Anastasia. This amazing story, a blend of historical intrigue and heartfelt fantasy, has captivated audiences for a long while, and it's been a privilege to bring our version of this magical story to B-CC's stage .

Directing this production has been a journey of discovery, much like Anya's own. We've explored themes of identity, memory, and the enduring power of hope. More than a simple fairytale, Anastasia reminds us that finding our place in the world is often a journey of both external and internal discovery.

I'm incredibly proud of the dedication and passion this cast and crew have poured into this production. Their commitment to bringing these characters to life has been truly inspiring. It's impossible for me to thank every person who had a hand in making this show happen, but my heartfelt gratitude extends to some of the following people, without whom the show would not be possible: Jen Lloyd, Danielle Gover, Bill Toscano, Michael Arden, and Kari Lantos.

Another big thank you to each and every parent of this incredible cast and crew. From organizing food for tech week, to coming to the school late at night to pick up these students after a long rehearsal. Your time and energy also helped make this possible.

I hope you'll join us in embracing the magic of this story and allow yourselves to be swept away on Anya's unforgettable adventure. Thank you for being here, and enjoy the show!

Mr. Jake Verga
