ABOUT THE SPEAKER

DR. WES BELLAMY

EDUCATOR | AUTHOR | ACTIVIST

Dr. Wes Bellamy is a nationally recognized educator, author, and activist whose work sits at the intersection of policy, leadership, and community empowerment. He is the author of the award-winning When White Supremacy Knocks, Fight Back! and Nobody Is Coming to Save Us: The Blackprint for Leadership, widely recognized as one of the most important leadership texts of its generation.

Dr. Bellamy serves as a Professor and Executive Director of the John Mercer Langston Institute for African American Leadership at Virginia State University, Chief Executive Officer of the Black College Invitational Championship (BCIC)—the nation's first HBCU postseason basketball tournament—and National Public Policy Chairman of the 100 Black Men of America. He is also Chairman of the Charlottesville Housing and Redevelopment Authority Board.

In 2016, he became the youngest person ever elected to the Charlottesville City Council and later served as Vice-Mayor, gaining national prominence for his leadership in the removal of Confederate statues and the creation of the Equity Package, a $4 million investment in marginalized communities. His work has been featured in The New York Times, The Washington Post, CNN, MSNBC, NPR, and PBS NewsHour.
