BRANDON chapter

Youth Scholarship Application

The Brandon Chapter of the New World Celts wishes to reward the talents of those young people who demonstrate an interest in learning and promoting Celtic culture and heritage in our community. To that end, the Chapter offers financial assistance to aid young men and women under the age of 21 in their endeavors.

Scholarship awards are granted based upon receipt of a qualified application with a clearly written statement of intent and description of proposed activity. Applicants wishing consideration for financial assistance in the form of a scholarship program award should complete the information and follow the submission requirements and instructions outlined below. The New World Celts of Brandon is a non-profit, non-political, non-religious organization and is open to everyone in Celtic culture regardless of race, creed or color.
