

Dusti Stark, LCSW

Biography

Dusti Stark is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker that has a private practice, Extending Grace Counseling and Consulting. Dusti has been a foster parent for over fourteen years and is currently a guardian and an adoptive parent to six children. Her primary work is focusing on her children, though she has a part-time practice working with individuals, families, and agencies. Dusti lives on a small farm with her husband and eight children.

Legacy of Love: Fostering Children

"In today's world, 5 million children experience domestic violence or abuse in their homes each year. Legacy of Love, by Dusti Stark, is an important book as it brings awareness to the plight of children in crisis. I recommend it to anyone who wants to help children."

- DR. JOHN DEGARMO, Founder/Director of The Foster Care Institute

