The Township of Washington known for being “A Great Place to Live, Work and Raise a Family” is a Faulkner Act community, incorporated February 17, 1836, and governed by a mayor and five (5) member Municipal Council system of New Jersey municipal government. The five (5) council positions are elected at-large by the entire community, and three (3) of these positions are up for election in November 2022.

“The Washington Township Republican Organization opened our council candidates review and endorsement process to interested parties in January, and received numerous responses from residents,” said Washington Township Republican Organization Chairman, Steve Pakradooni. “We are pleased to have so many residents wishing to serve our local municipal government,” said Chairman Pakradooni.
