

Tessa Dalton

fiddle player singer-songwriter.

FIDDLE PLAYER, SINGER-SONGWRITER,
MULTI-INSTRUMENTALIST

SHORT BIO

Tessa Dalton is an accomplished fiddle player and multi-instrumentalist, singer-songwriter, currently based in Nashville, TN. Raised in rural Idaho, Tessa grew up getting her hands dirty on her family farm and corn maze. At a young age, she took that country work ethic on the road to win old-time fiddle championships around the country. Currently studying Commercial Music at Belmont University, she's performing around Nashville, in the studio recording with artists across genres, and beginning her career as an artist and songwriter. Tessa wants to continue blending her love of fiddling and singing – hoping to give a unique and memorable listening experience on her records and at her shows.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Plays fiddle, guitar, mandolin, piano, and sings
- Artist, fiddler, writer, composer, studio musician, live performer, touring asset
- 30k monthly Spotify listeners
- Amassed over 500,000 streams since Nov. 2024
- Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, and Utah fiddle state champion
- National champion twin fiddler 2024
- Featured in "Christmas at Belmont", globally streaming on Amazon Prime, December 11th, 2024
- Featured in a quartet for John Ondrasik (Five for Fighting) on the TV show, "The Song" - episode will be airing January 2025
- Headlining world-famous Station Inn, December 7th, 2024

RECENT PRESS

On Your Radar - Melodic MAG

"Tessa Dalton is a musician whose talent is undeniable and diversity is refreshing. Dalton has developed her own blend of music that is completely her own... [and is] consistently making herself known as one of indie music's most shining stars".

Recent Release

Nothing Left of Me

Nashville-based singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist, Tessa Dalton, is releasing her latest pop-rock single, "Nothing Left of Me" on December 30, 2024. Inspired from Foo Fighters and Phoebe Bridgers, but incorporating the fiddle, Tessa is continuing to create her own unique sound. It is packed with violin effects, electric guitar, intense drums, and vibe-flips.

CONTACT

Email: tessadaltontbusiness@gmail.com
tessadaltont.com

