About Gala Night

Every family has a story... Welcome to a small part of ours.

My name is Morgan Aquino, I am Birdie's mom. Several years ago, this beautiful little girl flew into our lives unexpectedly and unannounced, it turned out to be the best thing that ever happened to our family.

Even though we didn't know she was going to come into our lives the way she did it simply didn't matter. God had a plan and with every ounce of my heart and soul, I believe He had us embark on this journey that has, and is, leading to so much more!

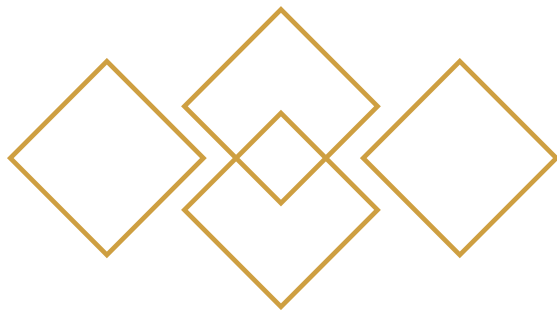

As we were on this journey, that ended up lasting 1,368 days, I felt God start to put something else on my heart...to help others who were going on the same journey as ours. At the time I couldn't imagine anything else on my plate, because in all truth, it was the most emotional experience of my life. There was so much unknown and no guarantee that she would wind up with us...My prayer journal pages are still warped by my tears that I would cry as I wrote to God. I remember once as I cried out, I asked, "God, do you even see me? Do you hear my cries? I'm doing everything you asked of me...why aren't you putting an end to this now? Help me!" and all I ever heard back was, "I built you to last. I'm here and there's so much more for you to do..."

The 1368 Gala is part of the "more". Once a year we will come together to celebrate the previous year and the families helped while looking forward to the coming year by raising funds to allocate to new families and changing a small part of the world right here in our own community, one family and one generation at a time!

Musical Guest - Joe Jordan

Growing up in the northeastern United States and playing any bar or honky tonk that would let him plug in his guitar, Jordan quickly learned how to engage an audience. His honest unfiltered lyrics led Jordan to write one of the biggest country hits by an indie artist in decades - "Front Seat", penned by Jordan, has over 120 million cumulative streams to date. Since the prolific songwriter and high energy performer has been releasing his own music over the past year, he is streaming over 125K per day and 3 million streams per month! Recently Jordan's socials & streaming caught the attention of Atlantic/Pure Tone Records. Jordan will be dropping an 18 song full length release in early Q2, 2025.
