Brecon Pride – Key Terms & Conditions

General Info:

- Anyone can walk on the day, but groups must pre-register using this form.
- Pride Officials and Stewards are there to keep everyone safe. Please follow their instructions and treat everyone with respect, in accordance with the nature of the event.

Your Responsibilities:

- Every group must provide a Lead Marshall to stay in touch with us and manage their entry. Larger groups must also provide extra marshalls (1 per 10 people).
- You're responsible for making sure everyone in your group behaves safely and respectfully. Security staff will be a part of the parade, and anyone deemed to be behaving dangerously or inappropriately may be excluded at the discretion of the security team.

Flags:

- Banners, flags and placards must not be more than 4.57m (15') high and must not cause a risk or inconvenience to others. The Parade Manager and our security team have full discretion on this on behalf of Brecon Pride.

Parade Rules:

- No offensive or off-topic banners are allowed. This is a celebration of the LGBT+ community.
- No fireworks, flares, smoke, alcohol or dangerous items.
- Please keep moving during the Parade. Don't stop unless you're told to.
- No swearing or inappropriate music.
- Children under 18 must be with a responsible adult.

Animals:

- Dogs must be on short leads at all times.
- You're responsible for the animal's welfare and clean-up.
- You'll need to have suitable insurance if bringing anything other than a dog.

Handouts:

- Handouts (like sweets or flyers) must be passed by hand only, and only by people on foot. Handouts must also be pre-approved by Brecon Pride, so please provide us with details if you would like to hand anything out during the parade.
