

Doyle "Pat" Chedick

"Passion is to live, laugh, have fun, and make a positive impact in someone else's life during the process."

Doyle Chedick, also known by friends and colleagues as Pat, was born to two immigrant parents and raised in New Carrollton, Maryland. Pat began his collegiate studies at Prince Georges County Community College where he received an Associates of Arts in Business Management. From PGCC he went on to pursue a Bachelor of Science in Finance at the University of Maryland University College and a Masters of Science in Taxation from American University.

Pat is the Managing Principal of Chedick Financial, a Tax & Small Business Consulting company in Washington, DC. He also serves our Nation as a civil servant in the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Pat participates in fundraising and speaking opportunities which include the Best Buddies 20-mile cycling fundraiser, local panels that help promote entrepreneurship and financial well-being, and supports numerous community organizations within the Washington, DC metropolitan area.

Pat's desire is to bring his expertise and knowledge to IT TAKES TWO to help strengthen its enduring legacy and mission in supporting the well-being of young people from single-parent homes through academic scholarships. He believes in community and wants to help IT TAKES TWO build strong foundations in the lives of the young people in the Baltimore-Washington region that will create "tomorrow's leaders today."

Pat is committed to giving back to the community through partnerships, mentoring, business support and leadership. "It is an honor and a privilege to serve on the Board of Directors of IT TAKES TWO. Being able to be a part of the life-changing work this organization is doing in the lives of young people in our communities will be one of the greatest experiences in my life."

Pat believes that the work IT TAKES TWO is doing will continue to have a positive impact on the lives of families across our region. "It makes me proud to know I can have a small stake in the process of change."
