

Virginia “Vee” Jones

Virginia Jones is a native of Washington, DC. She is a graduate of the University of Maryland University College, having earned an MBA and a Master of Science in Management with a specialization in Project Management. Virginia is currently a Senior Regulatory Compliance Analyst with Pepco where she has been employed in positions of increasing responsibility over the last 18 years.

Virginia recognizes the importance of enriching the lives of young people and serving the community. As a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Virginia has served as a Big Sister mentoring young ladies in the Debutante program. She is a parent adviser for Suitland High School’s Center for Visual and Performing Arts and a licensed realtor in the state of Maryland.

Virginia views joining the Board of It Takes Two as furthering “her passion and commitment to aiding our youth in meeting their full potential.” As a single parent of two daughters, Virginia will utilize her personal experiences and professional skills, like project management and strategic planning, to inspire the successful development of our future leaders. Virginia believes that collective mentoring enriches the lives of our youth. One of her favorite quotes is by Aristotle, “We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, therefore, is not an act but a habit.”
