

Chwedl Santes Dwynwen

Dwynwen yw nawddsant cariadon Cymru. Roedd hi'n dywysoges yn byw ar Ynys Môn yn y 5ed ganrif. Roedd hi'n ferch i'r Brenin Brychan Brycheiniog, y prydferthaf o'i 24 o ferched.

Cwympodd Dwynwen mewn cariad gyda dyn o'r enw Maelon Dafodrill. Bwriadodd ei briodi, ond roedd ei thad, y Brenin, wedi trefnu iddi briodi rhywun arall. Roedd Maelon mor grac o glywed hyn, fe ymosododd arni.

Yn ei thristwch, aeth Dwynwen i'r goedwig. Yno, gweddiodd i Dduw am gael anghofio Maelon. Syrthiodd Dwynwen i gysgu, ac yn ei chwsg ymwelodd angel â hi gan ddweud y gallai roi diod iddi a fyddai'n gwneud iddi anghofio Maelon ac yn troi Maelon yn dalp o rew.

Gweddiodd Dwynwen am dri dymuniad. Dymunodd Dwynwen i beidio troi Maelon yn dalp o rew, i sicrhau bod cariadon Cymru yn hapus, a na fyddai hi ei hun byth yn priodi.

Gwireddwyd ei dymuniadau hi, ac o ganlyniad i hynny, cysegrodd ei bywyd i Dduw. Daeth yn lleian gan sefydlu eglwys ei hun mewn lle a henwyd ar ei hôl - Ynys Llanddwyn. Bu farw yno yn 460 O.C.

Daw'r enw Llanddwyn o'r geiriau Llan + Dwyn, sy'n datblygu Eglwys y Santes Dwynwen.

Saint Dwynwen's Tale

Dwynwen is Wales' patron saint of lovers. She lived on Anglesey in the 5th century. She was said to be the most beautiful of King Brychan Brycheiniog's 24 daughters.

Dwynwen fell in love with a man named Maelon Dafodrill, and intended to marry him. However her father had already arranged for her to be married to someone else. Upon hearing this news, Maelon became so enraged that he attacked Dwynwen.

In her grief, Dwynwen fled to the forest. There she prayed to be able to forget her love for Maelon. In time she fell asleep, and in her sleep she was visited by an angel. The angel offered her a potion that would make her forget Maelon and would also turn him to ice.

Dwynwen prayed for three wishes. The first was for Maelon not to be frozen, the second was to secure the happiness of lovers, and the third was that she should never be married.

Her wishes were granted and in gratitude she dedicated her life to God, becoming a nun, and establishing her own church on the isle of Llanddwyn. She died there in 460AD.

The name Llanddwyn derives from the words Llan + Dwyn, literally meaning the Church of Santes Dwynwen.

Llwy Garu

Bydd rhai yn rhoi llwy garu i'w cariad fel anrheg ar ddiwrnod Santes Dwynwen. Dechreuodd y traddodiad yng Nghymru ganrifoedd yn ôl pan fyddai dynion ifanc yn cerfio llwy allan o bren fel symbol o'u cariad.

Some may gift a lovespoon to their partner on St Dwynwen's Day. The tradition of gifting lovespoons began centuries ago in Wales, when young men would carve the spoons out of wood to present to their lover.
