Q1 2021 Combined Meeting

March 9, 2021

Host: Mark Husnick, CEO Plus+

Agenda

- Welcome and Membership Items
- 2021 CIO / CISO of the Year and Rising Star Nominations
- NCFTA Overview – presented by Matt LaVigna, President and CEO of the National Cyber Forensics & Training Alliance
- Credential Selling
 - We will discuss how the underground selling of credentials has evolved and the threat it poses to the business community.
- Ransomware Part 2
 - Ransomware attacks have progressively evolved and are expected to continue to gain traction with their advanced attack vectors.
- Business Email Compromise
 - We will discuss the new threats and how to protect against this very common compromise.
- Solarwinds Compromise
 - General debrief and how to get assistance with the recent Solarwinds incident.
- Cyber Legal Debrief – presented by Matt Meade, a leading cyber law expert from Eckert Seamans
 - Matt will be discussing the recent OFAC advisory on ransom payments as well as some developments on privilege issues associated with retaining forensic experts. He will also brief us on the changes they are seeing regarding sharing of information by threat actors to incentivize ransom payments and punish those who do not pay.

Guest Speakers Today

Matt LaVingna is a retired Secret Service executive and the President and CEO of the National Cyber Forensics & Training Alliance (NCFTA), a public benefit, not for profit organization whose mission is to enable the identification, mitigation, and disruption of cyber and cyber-enabled crimes.

Matt Meade is a leading cyber law expert from Eckert Seamans. Matt concentrates his practice in the area of data security providing advice to clients regarding data breaches, information and records management, and other areas concerning data security. He regularly guides public and private sector clients through security incident investigations, analysis, communications, and, if necessary, responding to regulatory inquiries and litigation. Matt serves on The Sedona Conference Working Group Series Leadership Council.

Thank You!
