DINNER AND LEARN

“Always Ready for Children: Increasing Pediatric Readiness in Connecticut’s Emergency Departments”

Presented by

Marc Auerbach, MD, FAAP, MSc,

Associate Professor, Medical Director, CT
EMS for Children

Victoria Bames, RN, BSN, EMT, Program Coordinator, CT EMS for Children

Join us on Wednesday, June 17<sup>h</sup> at 6:00 PM as CTENA hosts a Dinner and Learn event. The topic of the night is pediatric readiness.

The content being covered will include overview of the National Pediatric Readiness Project (NPRP), integration of pediatric readiness into the ED, and resources available to supplement pediatric readiness in your own ED.

Program Objectives

At the end of this virtual learning activity, participants will:

- ◆ Verbalize increased awareness of the importance of pediatric readiness for all ED settings,
- ◆ Identify one area of improvement for pediatric readiness in their own ED setting, and
- ◆ Recognize available resources and tools to increase positive pediatric patient and family outcomes.

Pending Accreditation

This activity has been submitted to the Emergency Nurses Association for approval to award contact hours. The Emergency Nurses Association is accredited as an approv-er of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation.
