MEET JORDAN

Jordan, originally from Essex, Ontario, grew up in a family of construction workers and learned the fundamentals of quality architecture by swinging a hammer on job sites. He pursued his passion for design and holds Masters degrees in architecture and urban design. With over 10 years of experience, he has worked extensively on mixed-use urban infill developments and personal real estate investments in Downtown Toronto.

Jordan leverages his lifetime experience and genuine interest in connecting with people to help his clients make informed decisions and get the best value for their investments. As your sales representative, he guides you through the process step-by-step to ensure a rewarding experience when selling, buying, or leasing a property. Ultimately, Jordan's goal is to help his clients find a place they can call home.
