WELCOME

Sunny Queensland extends the heartiest of welcomes to our Palestinian friends, and congratulates them on their victorious tour of Australia.

Soccer stands supreme in Australian sport for encouraging and organising international tours from the various countries of the world, and the Palestine visit is symbolic of the world-wide soccer organisation.

This visit also symbolises the new life of the Jewish people. It tells the story of a new rejuvenated people seeking friends and reaching out to take their place in the game of life, as in the game of clean sports, with courage and fairness to themselves as well as to their opponents.

We trust that the Palestine team, like other teams that have visited our State, will leave us with regret, and further enhance our cherished reputation that

QUEENSLAND IS AUSTRALIA'S MOST HOSPITABLE STATE.

The Queensland Soccer Council

J. ENGLISH, Chairman.

PALESTINE PERSONALITIES

RALP SHLOMO ARAZI, Manager of the tourists, is 37 years of age. Graduated as a Civil Engineer at 26, and since then has been employed in the Dept. of Public Works. Has been a member of the Maccabi Executive, Palestine, since 1931. He can yell "Shoot Mon" in practically every language, being a linguist of considerable note.

EGON POLLACK, coach and trainer to the team, is a well-known baritone in Palestine opera. Formerly of Austria, he represented that country seven times as an international. Was also a member of the New York (America) Giants.

A. R. REZNIC, is Captain of the Palestinians. 28 years, 5 ft 10 ins., weighs 11 stone 1 pound. In private life is secretary to a flourishing flying school and passenger carrying organisation in Tel Aviv. He was a member of the Palestine team which arrived in Barcelona to tour Spain two days before the Revolution commenced. Needless to say, there was no tour.

ABRAHAM BETH-HALEVI, 26 years, 5 ft. 9 ins., weighs 11 stone. Has been approached by many European countries to transfer to them, but has remained faithful to Palestine. Toured America with the Palestine team.

JOSEPH SIDL, 21 years, 5ft. 7ins., weighs 10 st. 8 lbs. Goalkeeper, who has represented Palestine several times.

B. MIZRAHI, 24 years, 5 ft. 8 ins., weighs 10 st. 2 lbs. Was also a member of the Palestine team to tour America where the team drew record crowds; 60,000 in New York, and, on a very wet day, drew 30,000 in Chicago.

MENAHM MIRIMOWITCH, plays equally well as half or full-back. 24 years, 5 ft. 9 ins., weighs 10 st. 6 lbs. Has been a consistent representative for the Palestine national team.

SHALOM SHULIMZON, is one of the team's all-rounders. Height 5 ft. 9 ins., weighs 10 st., and although only 20 years of age, is considered one of the most talented players in Palestine, and has represented Palestine in international games for the past two years.

JOSEPH LEIBERMAN, is 28 years, 5 ft. 9½ ins., weighs 11 st. 9 lbs. One of the best half backs in Europe, has toured many countries with the Palestine team. Formerly a member of a Vienna team.

ZVI FOOKS, centre half of the tourists, is only 21, but is undoubtedly the brainiest member of the side. Is 5 ft. 10 ins. tall, weighs 10 st. 9 lbs., and his stamina is a marvel to the medical men of Palestine.

SIMON ALEMBIK, the 18-year-old baby of the team, plays football like a veteran; weighs 10 st., and is only 5 ft. 3 ins. in height. A skilful player, he is always pleasing in his work.

FIRENZ (FERRY) NUEFELD, centre forward, formerly played for Hungarian teams; 25 years, 5 ft. 10 ins., weighs 10 st. 13 lbs. Ferry is Palestine's recognised centre forward.

GAUL MAHKLISS, 21 years, 5 ft. 9 ins., 10 st. 12 lbs. in weight. Plays inside left, of left wing, and is tireless in his work. Has often represented Palestine in international games.

SAMUEL GINSBURG, has proved a headache to Australian goalkeepers. 21 years, 5 ft. 9 ins., weighs 10 st. 8 lbs. He has well deserved his nickname of the "Bomber," and is equally at home on either the left or right wings.

L. WERNER, 28, 5 ft. 7 ins., weighing 10 st. 10 lbs., started off the Australian tour by scoring the hat-trick. He was formerly a member of a Viennese team, and is an international of note in Europe.

ISAAC VINER, is an all-round athlete, but particularly well-known as a footrunner. 24 years, 5 ft. 11 ins., weighs 10 st. 11 lbs. Only recently he broke a Tel Aviv race track record.

J. GREENBURG, 28 years, 5 ft. 7 ins., weighing 10 st. 10 lbs., is another former European player, and toured the United States with the Palestine team.

A. SCHNAIDEROWITCH, is another of the younger players, 21 years, 5 ft. 9 ins. tall, weighs 11 st. Has often represented Palestine, and could make his way in any professional team.

“We’re Telling You!”

The game of football was first played by the Public Schools of England in the year 1710. Each school played under its own rules, many of which were the foundations of to-day's laws.

Eton College had amongst its rules “That a player must not kick the ball unless he had more than three opponents in front of him and the ball behind him.” The foundation of the offside rule.

To Harrow we owe the idea of ordering a player off, for in their laws it stated “That the Umpire could put out of play any player wilfully breaking any of the football laws.” Cheltenham College originated the use of a cross-bar, and introduced the throw-in from the sideline.

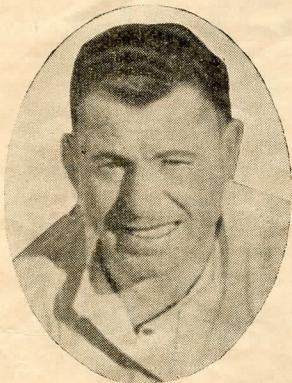

The original meeting of the Football Association was held on October 26th, 1863. 1871 saw the commencement of the English Cup Competition.

The first international match, between England and Scotland, was played in 1872, at Glasgow, and ended in a scoreless draw.

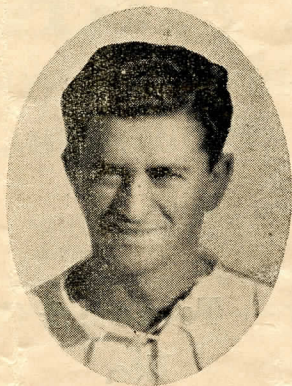

Goal nets were first used in 1891. Shin guards were introduced in 1874 by W. S. Widdowson, of Notts Forest Club.

Professionalism was legalised in 1885. The first pro' footballer registered was William Winkworth, a half-back from Winchester Town Club (Hampshire).

Football in Palestine

Once more the Soccer Football Code has taken the lead in inviting international bodies to this country, this time with a team from a land which receives daily mention in the press of the world—Palestine. Nearly everything written on this country has been in the light of History, Geology, or politics, and although much has been published lately about the economical, industrial and cultural development of this ancient Holy Land, very little has been devoted to the subject of sport, in which nearly every young man and woman in Palestine is engaged from childhood.

Although less than 500,000 Jews live in Palestine, 38 Soccer Clubs have been formed, some of them composing many teams. Every Jewish village has its own sporting ground, even though the expense of maintaining grounds is extremely high.

Maccabi is the symbolic name of Palestinian sport, and it has become so popular that in 1932 a new settlement was given the name "Maccabi Village." The first sports club established in the new settlement bears the name "Maccabi."

Generally speaking, physical culture of all descriptions is very popular in Palestine, but, as in many other countries, so in Palestine, the most popular sport is Soccer Football, which draws many thousands of inhabitants of the particular town or city where its matches are staged. Even the children become adherents of particular clubs, and when the season opens one can see children as well as adults wearing the Maccabi emblem.

To select a team for a tour abroad, the Soccer Section is given a trial for one or two weeks, also the new candidate gets an opportunity to play with a selected team in a local match and, after the trainers and the committee are satisfied that the candidate is 100 per cent. fit for a tour abroad, this particular player is included in the team. Very often better players are found at the last moment and in such cases these take the place of weaker players. But as usual, the backbone of a touring team are those who have already had experience in playing against other international teams either at home or abroad.

Despite the adverse political conditions, men stubbornly stick to their ideal, Soccer Football. The Maccabi's, for instance, are building a new playground, and all the Clubs are doing their very best for the arrangement of friendly matches.

The players are not only pure amateurs; most of them, with the exception of some students and clerks, are working men belonging to the building, harbour and tramway sections, and to police forces. Nevertheless, enthusiasm for sports practice is kept at a high degree, and only people who have lived in Palestine and gone through the great heats during nine months of the twelve, will really understand its outstanding value.

The recent arrival of some European football specialists, who have immediately been entrusted with the most important functions, will surely help to still further the development of Football in Palestine.

The Palestine Football Association will celebrate this year the 10th anniversary of its formation. On this occasion Jubilee Cup Ties will be played all over the country. Despite obstacles of any kind the competent local authorities are also looking forward to the fixing of regular international visits.

From all this, one can see that Football has found a permanent abode in Palestine. As it seems that the Palestinian team will participate in the Olympic Games at Helsinki, the football specialists of the world will have the opportunity to see for themselves that Palestine has gone the right way despite all obstacles.

Ten Commandments for Soccer Players

1. Thou shalt not have too much to say during the match.
2. Thou shalt not think thyself possessed of all the knowledge of the game, or that thou art the best player in the team; nor that the game will stop if thou absentesth thyself therefrom.
3. Thou shalt not take the name of the poor old Ref. in vain, for the Council will not hold him guiltless that talketh of the Ref. profane.
4. Remember that thou keep knocked in, the nails in thy boots, six times thou mayst look at them and find them O.K., but the next time the Referee may look and finding some exposed, will send thee off the field.
5. Honor thy opponents and their supporters that thy name may be spoken well of by the lads that playeth both for and against thee.
6. Thou shalt do no swearing.
7. Thou shalt not handle man or ball without permission.
8. Thou shalt not push, kick, strike, hold, trip, or jump at thy opponents; nor do anything which thou wouldst object to them doing unto thee.
9. Thou shalt not make false appeals against thy opponents.
10. Thou shalt not covet nor desire other teams' players, nor the medals which their skill hath won.

Shouldst thou not be able to keep all these Commandments, both on and off the field, keep thyself away from a game, which can do much better without thee.

LOOKING BACKWARD

(By "OLD TIMER")

The recent visit of the N.S.W. Soccer Team to Queensland called to mind the beginning of these interstate visits. The first visit of a Queensland team to N.S.W. took place in 1890; this team won every match played, a record that stood for many years. The team included some very fine soccer exponents, amongst whom were the Menzies Brothers, Brown Brothers, Jim McCosh, Andy Manson and Hughie Blake, and was managed by Andy Rankine. Most of these players have gone over the Great Divide, but Jim McCosh was present at the July interstate game this year.

Not until 1898, just 41 years ago, did a N.S.W. team visit Queensland, and honours were even in this series; if my memory serves me correctly, another eight years elapsed before the two States met again.

In the late 'eighties (the writer arrived in Brisbane in '87) and early 'nineties, some very fine players were playing in the Brisbane and Ipswich areas. In addition to those mentioned above there were the Jarvis Brothers, Jack Christie, Shelly Brothers, Bennett, Bill Aillson, Mitchell Brothers, Sam Ross, Gillam Brothers, A. Hirst, Joe Fenton, Finlayson Brothers, and others too numerous to recall to memory at present.

In the Ipswich area such names as Tom Barker (the old horse), Archie Waugh, Lindsay Brothers, Baileys (2), Wright and others. The game in those days, although very strenuous, was forgotten when it was finished. Soccer was played for the love of it, and teams visiting Brisbane or Ipswich did not return home until the last train, as the social side was never forgotten.

It was not until 1891 or 1892 that a trophy was played for, known as the Queensland Challenge Cup. The controlling body was known as the Queensland British Football Association or Q.B.F.A. The contest for this cup was very keen.

In 1893 a number of enthusiasts, which included Messrs. Bob Wylie, Allan Wylie, Andrew Rankine, W. McNaughton, Chamberlain, D. G. Forbes, all of whom have gone to the great beyond, assisted by others, raised funds and procured a very handsome and very valuable cup, which was known as the Brisbane Charity Cup. It was to be competed for on the lines of the Glasgow Charity Cup. This competition was entered by the various clubs, and proceeds from gates were distributed to charitable institutions such as the Brisbane General and Children's Hospital, Deaf and Dumb Institution and Lady Bowen Hospital.

Now, Mr. Editor, I think I have given a brief resume of a portion of the early days of Soccer. This might elicit some comment from some of your readers, so much the better. At a later date when I have my thinking cap on, I may be able to give you some further details culled from memory. It was while watching the recent N.S.W. v. Queensland match that my thoughts wandered back to the late 'eighties, when as a lad arriving in Brisbane in 1887, I was introduced to Jack Christie, the first Soccerite I met. Much water has flowed beneath the Victoria Bridge since then. Anon for the present.

I wish the "Aussie" team, and more especially the Queensland team every success in their forthcoming matches against Palestine.

A Brazilian soccer club paid 415 bags of coffee as a transfer fee for a player from the Italian Football Association.

In 1934 the All Russian Cup Final was played in the main city square at Moscow, on special carpets laid over the cobble stones.

A team of certified insane footballers beat a team of sane men by 4 goals to 2, in a game organised to demonstrate a specialist's contention that insane persons are capable of carrying out various acts as competently as sane persons.

In a match between French and Italian Colonial teams, no spectators were allowed to witness the game owing to the intense political feeling existing. This game was played in Tunisia in 1939.

In 1918, Jimmy McMullan had been standing by as a Scottish reserve in the "Victory International," and the English team arrived one man short. So Jimmy played with the "Enemy" and received a rather unique medal as his reward.

During the Spanish Revolution, in 1937, the opposing forces declared an armistice in order to play a game of soccer between the rebels and Government forces. The war recommenced immediately the final whistle had blown.

In Montevideo, 1933, during a match between Paraguay and Uruguay, wire netting was erected around the pickets, and barbed wire around the actual playing area, whilst machine gunners stood guard to stop any fighting.

You must have a head for football. Evidently Cec. Brittain, of Y.M.C.A. and Queensland, has. The story goes that a friend was seeking him at the brickworks, and was informed that he might be located by looking for a man standing beside a waggon and heading the bricks as they came down into the vehicle.

Next Year: South Africa

Negotiations for the visit of the Soccer Springboks to Australia next year are well advanced. The chief point of discussion now is the guarantee that South Africa must entertain an Australian Soccer team in 1941.

Should the arrangements for these reciprocal visits be finalised, the Australian players can look forward to a splendid trip, and wonderful entertainment in that year. Particularly so if the second half of the suggested programme be carried out; i.e., to continue the tour from South Africa on to England.

Political upheavals being at a minimum, Australia's soccer stars are due for a greater variety of tours than any other code of football, for soccer is the only code which can guarantee international visits from and to the majority of countries throughout the world. The public also can look forward to football entertainment as scintilating as it is possible to produce from such countries as South Africa, America, Hungary and the home of soccer — England.
