Under 13

With eight teams ranging from under -8 to under-18, the future of soccer at Ebbw Vale seems assured for many years to come, and a glance over the coaches of these teams lends promise of a continued high standard of football ability.

Former top goalie Don Leo combines with Jack Dobbie and John Haswell in coaching the under-13 side which has scored no fewer than 105 goals in an undefeated premiership record.

Another premiership leader is the under-8 team coached by Brian Vogler and Spencer Kitching. And how could the under-9 side miss with a pair of mentors like Cliff Sander and Col Kitching.

Al Warren, John Norman, and Keith McKeand are showing the under-11 the finer points while Larry Ritchie handles the under-10's. The under-14's are showing plenty of promise under the guiding hands of Tom Johnston, Dave Bailey and "Bluey" Roberts.

Fred Butcher and Tom McClurg are doing good work with the under-15's who are currently top of the table, while Alan Pitcairn has the older brigade of under-18's running into top form.

A big bouquet to these coaches who are putting back such a lot into the game. Next year an under-7 side is planned and it is rumoured that former centre-half Les McCrea may be coaxed to come out of retirement to lick them into shape.
