SOCCER TEAM FROM JAPAN TO PLAY HERE

By PHIL WILKINS

The Japanese Olympic soccer team is expected to play two matches against Australia between March 29 and April 5. The Japanese team is to spend a fortnight in Mexico City in March acclimatising for the Games, for which it has qualified, in October. Originally, it was hoped that the Japanese would be able to play four matches on their return from Mexico. But the Japanese Football Association's expenses were considered excessive by the Soccer Federation.

Japan will play on successive days

By TERRY SMITH

Japan's national Soccer team will play two games on successive days against Australia on March 30 and 31. The opening game will be played at the Sydney Olympic Park, Melbourne. The remaining match between Japan and Australia will be played at the Norwood Oval, Melbourne on April 4. A new programme arranged yesterday by the Australian Soccer Federation will see the Crusader Billy Graham cause officials to catch the third Test from Brisbane on Thursday night, April 4, to Adelaide. Billy Graham has booked Brisbane's only suitable football arena for Thursday, April 4. The 16 man Australian squad to meet Japan will assemble in Sydney on March 26. Selectors will name the squad on March 24.

SAIGON, Wed. (UPI). —Australia won its first international Soccer tournament tonight by carrying off the Vietnam National Day cup in a thrilling 3-2 victory over South Korea. The game opened dramatically before a crowd of 25,000 that included Vietnam's national soccer team.
