DEFINITION OF TERMS.

A place kick is a kick at the ball while it is on the ground in the centre of the field.

A free kick is a kick at the ball in any direction the player pleases when it is lying on the ground.

A place kick, free kick, or a penalty kick must not be taken until the referee has given the signal for same.

Carrying by the goalkeeper is taking more than two steps while holding the ball or bouncing it on the hands.

Knocking on, is when a player strikes or propels the ball with his hands or arms.

HANDLING AND TRIPPING.

Handling is intentionally playing the ball with the hand or arm, and tripping is intentionally throwing or attempting to throw an opponent by the use of the legs or by stooping in front of or behind him.

Holding includes the obstruction of a player by the hand or any part of arm extended from the body.

Touch is that part of the ground on either side of the field of play.
