

William(Pop) Dann (-1989)

William had six sons play soccer, four represented Ipswich during their careers
All were Queensland Representatives at schoolboy level and three at Senior level

William represented Ipswich in 1934 in a McGregor Cup match.
Bill originally played rugby league for Ipswich All-Sports Rugby League Club.

But as a father he felt soccer was the better code for his boys to play and as an example he quickly changed jerseys and donned his soccer boots.

In those days he played with Oxley United and later Redbank Seekers many time with his eldest son Noel.
William became a Life Member of St Helens

Each of the Dann boys have in their own way achieved success. Some have gone on to represent Ipswich in junior and senior soccer
Kevin(3) Douglas, Jeffrey(4) John(8) Stephen(2) played Kruger Cup for Ipswich
Bill (Junior) come through the junior ranks and also having made the Ipswich team as a schoolboy.

John, Stephen and Jeffrey went on to even greater heights to represent Queensland
John was selected to play for Queensland against South Australia in 1973 and the squad for Birmingham City
Stephen was selected in 1971 squad against Sydney Hakoah and in 1975 the squad against Manchester United Jeffrey represented Queensland against Wisla Kracow, Norwich City and was in the squad against New Caledonia in 1979
