SOUVENIR PROGRAMME 1/-

Welcome to our Grand Final

by Mr. I. Brusasco,
President, Queensland Soccer Federation

May I welcome everyone to today's Grand Final. A Grand Final is always a thrill because teams know that the next 90 minutes of football will make the difference between them being Champions for 1965 and being a team that has had a good season.

Today we will witness for the first time ever an Ipswich team in the Grand Final and we must congratulate them for attaining this high honour. They will be pitted against one of our most experienced senior teams who, after just having missed Premiership honours, will be all out to prove they will make worthy Champions for 1965.

To both teams may I wish success realising that only one team will win.

May I particularly welcome people from other codes who may be present. I sincerely hope you enjoy this fine game of ours with its artistry and brilliance and to the followers of our code, I am sure you will once again be thrilled by the football we all love so much.
