National PSL Roundup

Marconi Move On

MELBOURNE — Marconi took another firm step towards the 1979 Philips League Soccer title by beating South Melbourne 2-1 at Middle Park.

The loss sent South Melbourne crashing to last place on the ladder but at no stage during the game did South look a struggling team.

Mendo Ristovski, transferred from Footscray for 12 thousand dollars during the week, had a pleasing debut with South Melbourne, scoring the goal that equalised Tony Henderson's opening score for Marconi.

Ristovski's goal came in the 57th minute, and for the next 13 minutes South Melbourne looked capable of at least drawing, if not winning the match.

However there was no stopping Marconi's brilliant Soccerroo Forward Eddie Krncevic, who gave Marconi the two points with a memorable back headed goal 20 minutes from the end.

South Melbourne, which has spent heavily to improve its teams, must have been hoping that it had spent some of the cash on Krncevic, who was playing in the Victorian State League before joining Marconi last summer.

This was not one of Marconi's better performances. Melbourne fans have come to expect more from the mighty Sydney team which has beaten Heidelberg 8-1 and Footscray 5-0 here in past matches.

Krncevic, Tony Henderson, Ivo Prskalo and John Russell put on sound performances but the others could have done better.

One of the best players of the match was South Melbourne's Bertie Lutton, who worked tirelessly in mid-field.

Young centre-back Kiri Kyriakouleas played with great poise and authority at centre-back.

Marconi easily could have gone into the lead as the result of a fine run by Krncevic in the 20th minute.

Goal-keeper Peter Laumets blocked Krncevic's shot at the post and as the ball ran free, Mark Jankovics tried to back heel it into the net.

Peter Sharne raced to the ball to help it over the line but South's full-back Mike Pye got there first to prevent the goal.

South Melbourne appealed for a penalty when a shot by Ristovski appeared to hit Russell on the arm, but Tasmanian Referee Jack Johnston turned down the appeal.

A few moments later, Lutton dashed away on a promising run but was stopped by a blatant foul from Ken Lindsay, who was shown the yellow card.

A run down the right by full-back Mike Berry led to Marconi's opening goal in the 33rd minute.

Berry's cross was headed by Jankovics to the unmarked Henderson, who put the ball into the net at the far post.

Just before half-time, Evans ran into the goal area after a cross from George Campbell but Russell intercepted and headed clear to avert danger.

Marconi's majestic sweeper Prskalo made a rare mistake when he ran forward trying to leave Evans off side.

The foil failed and Evans dashed away towards goal. However Prskalo showed great speed to catch Evans and dispossess him with a sliding tackle inside the penalty area.

South Melbourne's equaliser came in the 57th minute when Evans brought down a cross from Sammy Wright and, Ristovski lashed the ball into the net.

Three minutes later Evans laid the ball back for a shot by Wright but goalkeeper Allan Maher pushed the ball over the bar for a good save.

Marconi's flying winger Sharne, who played despite an ankle injury, failed to last the match and was replaced by Bertie Mariani in the 63rd minute.

Krncevic's winning goal was scored 20 minutes from the end, and what a goal it was. Prskalo took a free kick from 40 metres, Krncevic jumped towards the ball and back headed it into the net.

Two for Reed

SYDNEY — Throwing caution to the wind, Apia kept in touch with the top four by defeating Canberra City 3-0 at Wentworth Park.

But the loss of the bonus point, which an extra goal would have brought, leaves them struggling in their bid to rise to fourth position with six matches remaining.

Their busy striker, Ken Reed, collected goals in the 4th and 46th minutes, the first following a blunder by Canberra defender, Keni Kawaleva, and the second a result of an excellent header.

Right-back Bob McGinn netted the third in the 97th minute, after Canberra stopper John Brown diverted the ball just far enough to evade goalkeeper Steve Hoszowski on the dive.

Reed's opening goal resulted from an easy placement after Kawaleva let the ball run free just outside his own goal area.

McGinn made a brilliant right wing run after half-time, squaring the ball cleanly for Reed to head it home.

Canberra's chance to come into the game arrived in the 23rd minute.

Isaac Farrell steered the ball through from midfield and striker Terry Byrne moved into the open.

Apia goalkeeper Greg Woodhouse was fully committed but Byrne shot wide.

After slugging out a draw with Marconi on Wednesday night, too few Canberra players showed the fitness required to cope with Apia's four man attack.

Striker Don McLaren got through a power of work in the first half but after running 50/50 with Apia's Soccerroo defender Peter Wilson, dropped out of the picture later.

Apia were workmanlike but the display by left back Mark Pullen demonstrated an ability that could bring him into contention for a future National squad place.

Sensation in Third Minute

SYDNEY — Two goals in three minutes late in the game enabled Adelaide City to snatch a 2-1 victory over Sydney Olympic at Pratten Park.

The game opened sensationally when John Perin brought down Graham Jennings in the third minute just inside the penalty area.

Richie Bell crashed home the penalty kick. Full of confidence as a result of this early lead, Olympic threw the ball around in cavalier fashion for the next 15 minutes and stretched the Adelaide City defence to the limits.

With Derek Laing and Peter Raskopoulos supplying the inspiration from Midfield, Olympic threatened to take charge of the game but were unable to finish off many promising moves.

Adelaide City began to regain their composure and came back into the game with their own brand of flowing football, but they lacked penetration.

The closest they came to scoring before the interval was in the 32nd minute but Ken Wilson scooped the ball away from the foot of John Nyskohus only metres from the goal-line.

Olympic's central defenders Bell and Wilson kept City at long range and their shots from this distance were capably handled by Olympic's young goalkeeper Peter Wilson.

After half-time City played more down the middle of the pitch but a lot of the menace in their forward line disappeared when centre-forward Dixie Deans was replaced through injury in the 55th minute.

Despite their cool, precise build up, City found difficulty in forcing their way through the crowded penalty area as the Olympic back-line continued to defend stubbornly.

With 15 minutes remaining Bob Marwe completely missed the ball less than a metre from the line, when only a touch was needed to provide the equaliser.

Five minutes later the pressure on the Olympic defence finally paid dividends for City.

A well flighted free kick from Chris Kent was converted by John Nyskohus with a flying header.

Three minutes later City hit the front as Marwe atoned for his earlier miss by slamming the ball home from close range during a goal-mouth scramble.

Olympic lost Bell with a bad eye injury immediately after and City muffed two easy chances to increase their tally before the final whistle.

Top Four Hopes Jolted

ADELAIDE — West Adelaide's Philips League top four hopes were severely jolted by a 2-0 defeat at the hands of Sydney City at Hindmarsh Stadium.

An own goal in the 16th minute and another in the 81st minute did the damage for Sydney City.

West Adelaide played far better than the score indicates and dominated the match for long periods but failed to translate it into goals.

As early as the tenth minute John Kosmina had the Sydney defence in trouble with a fine cross, but Ian McGregor mistimed his header.

And four minutes later Kosmina again took Sydney apart, but shot into the side netting from eight metres.

Sydney took the lead in the 16th minute when Ian Bruce drove in a goal-mouth cross and with the ball heading for safety Peter Tymczyszyn accidentally turned it into his own net.

West took time to regain its composure but once it did Sydney was again on the defensive.

West was desperately unlucky not to equalise in the 30th minute when Dave Pillans saw his header cleared off the line from a corner kick.

Both sides had ample opportunity in the second half with West Adelaide in particular messing up two golden opportunities.

Graham Norris shot wide from eight metres in the 52nd minute and in the 60th minute Kosmina tore through Sydney's defence but belted the ball into the side netting.

Sydney clinched the victory in the 81st minute after another awful defensive blunder.

John Stevenson robbed David Jones of the ball 30metres out from goal and Stevenson surged forward, drew out Martyn Crook and lobbed the ball over his head.

Hat-Trick Roy

MELBOURNE — A hat-trick by Roy Cotton helped St. George to come from behind to defeat Footscray 3-1 at Olympic Park, Melbourne.

Footscray hit the front three minutes before half-time with a fine goal scored by Zdravko Lujic.

But St. George equalised within the minute and took the lead early in the second half.

Roy Cotton was Saint's hero, scoring all three goals and helping lift his club from bottom place on the League table.

Cotton's first goal came as he worked his way through a crowded penalty area to slash home a square pass from Nick Feoughty.

Then, with Footscray caught square, Cotton breasted down a throw in before beating goalkeeper Steve Potter with a near post drive seven minutes after the interval.

Finally, one minute from time Cotton crashed home a beautiful drive to bring up his hat-trick.

Elated with the prospect of two valuable points, Saint's threw everything into defence after Cotton's second goal.

Warren Heads a Winner

IPSWICH UNITED 1 (W. Warren 17th) d FRENCHVILLE UNITED 0.

Halftime 1-0.

Referee: Jack Wood

Cautions: Nil.

Ipswich United captain Wayne Warren goal.ed from a John Dann corner in the first half to keep Ipswich United in third position in a disappointing match against Frenchville United at Ebbw Vale last Sunday.

Ipswich were the better side in the first half but once again failed to capitalise on the goal scoring opportunities. The build-up was sure and positive against a hesitant Frenchville defence but the shooting was woeful with the exception of John Dann.

He repeatedly tested Mark Booth but the keeper was equal to the task except for late in the first half when he cracked a dipping drive off the under side of the crossbar.

Midfielder Sterling McQuire almost levelled after Warren's goal when he cut infield from the right and hammered a vicious left foot drive which Greg Donnelly brilliantly saved.

The bustling Frenchville tactics when they stood up on Ipswich in the second half were successful but this frustrated Ipswich and they lost composure when further goals did not come.

The passing of both teams in this half was short of respectable standard and if it had not been for the strength of Warren and the brilliance of Donnelly, Ipswich United could have been punished for their inability to ram home the advantage.

Twice Booth left his line to courageously cover attempts by John Dann and Leon Wilson while at the other end Donnelly saved the day at the first by taking two corners under pressure after being flattened by Wayne Warren.

Between the goalkeeping highlights Frenchville should have equalised after Derek Doolan set up Robert O'Grady but he shot over from in close after an hour. Similarly Steve Dann made a strong run off an Ipswich United throw in, beat the defence but muffed the chance with a weak shot to Booth.

For Ipswich it was their fourth State League win on the trot but one wonders how long it will continue.

For Frenchville they possibly played to their ability but lacked punch against the strong Ipswich defence.

Last Let-Down

ST. GEORGE SOUTHS 2 (Edwards 17th, Mylonas 21st) d ACROSS THE WAVES 1 (Bousen 8th).

Referee: Col Amos.

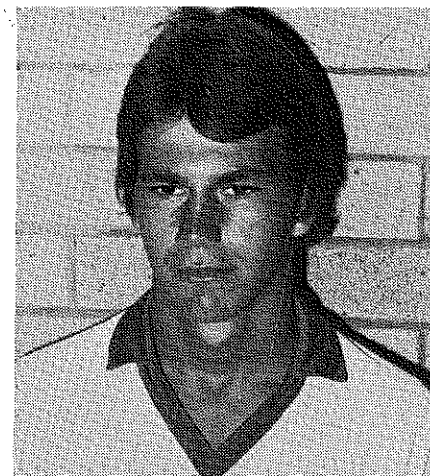

Cautions: Baretta (Waves), Knott (St. George)

Sent off: Schneider (St. George)

It was a let down for the smaller than usual crowd at Bundaberg on Sunday when local side, Across the Waves, failed to show the promise to render an end-of-season revival.

With a draw against Townsville Kern United fresh under its belt, the fit Waves team lost its last home game to an unimpressive bottom City club.

St. George appeared to have lost interest in the season, scoring just enough to earn the points, but Waves lacked the talent to capitalise on the visitors' lethargy.

St. George was spurred to greater effort when Waves' most recent signing, young Greg Bousen, the top scorer in one of the local competitions, scored from an in-goal mix-up which his aggressiveness produced.

Twice St. George made good its retaliations within the next 13 minutes, though some strong shots from Horst Schneider had the Waves' defence wondering.

At two-one, after 21 minutes of play, all scoring ceased — rarely was either goalkeeper under pressure for the last three-quarters of the game.

St. George, slower than the fitter Waves side in the midfield, was most dangerous from corners and free-kicks from which set moves could be started.

In fact, Tony Edwards' goal at the 17 minute mark was from a corner, but the goal by Paul Mylonas in the 21st minute was a bright individual effort scored from half a chance which was taken with determination.

ANOTHER SUPERMAC?

LONDON — While the Supermac Era is drawing to a close, another "Mac" is about to launch his career.

Steve Mackenzie, the 17-year-old former Crystal Palace reserve team player, has been signed by Manchester City for $500,000. Criticism of City's Malcolm Allison, who engineered the transfer, have ranged from 'outrageous' to a case of 'midsummer madness'. But the young mid fielder has taken it in his stride and is keen to prove his critics wrong.

"I am extra determined to do well at Maine Road, just to prove to everyone who doubted City's wisdom in paying that much money for me," he said.

"After four years at Palace I needed a chance and I think it will do me good.

"If you are going to make your mark in football you have to do it with the English First Division. I feel that I am coming into the start of something new at City. New players are at the club and there is a marvellous spirit.

"The size of the fee does not bother me. I just want to keep learning about the game and get as much out of life member of Palace's winning FA Cup as I do out of football," said Mackenzie.

The tough mid-fielder, who was a member of Palace's winning F.A. Cup Youth side last year, was on the verge of cracking into the big time until last month when manager Terry Venables paid a record club fee of $930,000 for former England skipper and mid-fielder, Gerry Francis. England Youth manager, John Cartwright, has no doubts that Mackenzie has the talent to develop into one of the game's stars.

"Steve has bags of talent. I watched him develop for four years at Crystal Palace when I was Youth coach," he said.

"He is a brave and intelligent player who is extremely receptive to ideas. There are no doubts about his character when the going gets tough, and he never hides.

"He must keep learning about the game and as a player he must quicken up. Steve will never have any pretensions to being a sprint champion, but he must work on his speed." Cartwright said Mackenzie's maturity far exceeded his tender years.

"You just have to look at the way he handled his transfer. He was quite willing to go to Belgium to play for Anderlecht.

"You have to have a lot of confidence to contemplate that sort of move," he said.

THE AMERICAN SOLUTION

The Soccer boom in the United States, initially regarded as a nine days' wonder by sceptical Europeans, has started the alarm bells clanging this year.

North American football, a tiny fledgling less than 10 years ago, has suddenly developed into a full-sized predatory bird.

At one time it was reliant on a trickle of European players to protect and sustain its appetite, but now it launches itself across the Atlantic, swooping down to pick off the top stars.

Restrictive measures to halt the growing exodus of Dutch professional players to the North American Soccer League (NASL) were introduced recently by the Royal Netherlands Football Association.

They include a total ban on players going to America for three months during the Dutch Soccer season and restricting loans to 12 months.

The ban, which will come into effect from next season, is designed to prevent possible influence on results of Cup and League matches.

The most celebrated Dutch player now in America is the legendary Johan Cruyff, formerly with Ajax Amsterdam and Spanish club Barcelona, who came out of retirement to join Los Angeles Aztecs.

Other Dutch professionals now in the U.S. include former World Cup stars Willem Van Hanegem, Wim Rijsbergen and Johan Neeskens.

Neeskens still only 27, turned his back on Europe to join New York Cosmos, turning down a move to top English club Arsenal.

It seemed to many that Neeskens had "sold out" to the American dollar, robbing Europe of a leading player it could ill afford to lose at a time when World class players are scarce.

West German Soccer fans similarly mourned the day "Kaiser" Franz Beckenbauer deserted his empire for the dollars of the United States.

OPEN THURSDAY NIGHT & SATURDAY MORNING

His abdication two years ago hastened the decline of Bayern Munich and the West German national side, two teams he had led to the most glittering triumphs.

It also worried the nation's Soccer Administrators, who banned further moves abroad until the 1978 World Cup finals, in which West Germany badly missed Beckenbauer's poise and skill.

Gerd Mueller, like Beckenbauer, had played in the West German sides which won the 1972 European Championship and the 1974 World Cup, as well as installing Bayern Munich in a three-year reign as European club champions.

But he clashed with the club and left for the United States.

Apart from Beckenbauer and Mueller, West Germany has not lost any other top players, but their Soccer authorities have been worried, like the Dutch, about the loan system.

The National Football Federation (DFB) executive ruled last April that a player who signs for a foreign club cannot return to West German football until July 1 the following year.

DFB press chief Wilfried Gerhardt said the step was taken to eliminate the difficulties and disadvantages short-term transfers caused Bundesliga clubs.

It primarily affected moves to the United States or Canada, where West German players could collect rich pickings from close season "guest appearances" before returning home he said.

"The American Season runs from March to September and that impinges on both ends of our season," Gerhardt said.

"That has serious consequences for our clubs and we wanted to stop the adverse effects."

West German clubs were perturbed at the prospect of wealthy American clubs having first claim on their players, even if, for the time being at least it was merely an overlap of a week or two.

The added complication of European Football Union (UEFA) rules prompted European Footballer of the Year, Kevin Keegan to drop plans for a three-month stint with the Washington Diplomats this summer. It would have made England international Keegan ineligible for Hamburg's opening games in next seasons European Cup. The fear in England is that the Americans will not stop at loaning players, but will want to buy them permanently.

At first it was second and third division players who drifted across the Atlantic, but a shudder ran through the First Division when Manchester City's star winger Dennis Tueart packed his bags to join New York Cosmos. Clubs already facing financial problems have been held to ransom by players who have threatened to ask for transfers if they are not allowed to play in America during the close season.

As yet opinion is still divided. Many experts believe that American Soccer will seriously impinge on the British scene, robbing it of both players and managers.

Others argue that despite the current upsurge in popularity, American Soccer will eventually dwindle and die. The next 10 years should provide the answer.

Ipswich Points to Ponder

LIONS and Ipswich United appear to have a reasonable sister club relationship on the administration level.

On the playing field the "family" situation obviously does not exist. In the SEQL two weeks ago Lions were comfortably placed at the top of the ladder losing only one game to Brisbane City.

Now they are equal leaders with Coalstars after losing to Bundamba, 3-2 to Coalstars and 4-1 at Ebbw Vale to St. Helens in the last two games. These two teams are the major partners in Ipswich United.

This points to a great local derby next week at Bundamba with Coalstars a chance for the title and St. Helens a chance of making the final four if they beat Coalstars, and our tip is they will, which may make the Ipswich United relationship a little unfriendly in the next few weeks.

—oOo—

CERTAIN Frenchville United defender did not enhance himself to the locals at Ebbw Vale last Sunday with his use of the magic four letter word. Three times he was heard to say it close to the sideline after making a bad pass or lose possession and he did not say "ARMY".

—oOo—

APPEARS as if the referees also have communication problems. Referee Jack Wood who had a good game in the Ipswich United—Frenchville United match thought his linesmen were to be Bill Monteverde and Leon Lewandowski. Neither showed at Ebbw Vale but Mike Brine did and Ray Bennett who was there as a spectator ran the other line.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir,

I wish to say a few things on behalf of Soccer, and for Inala. The comments of Sideliner (obviously where he belongs) disturbed me the most, especially the report of the Inala City — Salisbury Colts B game last week.

Although a supporter of Inala City. I also support good Soccer by any teams. Obviously Sideliner knows nothing about the game, is a biased supporter of Salisbury, or has a son playing in the team. Maybe he is colour blind, but everyone else at Freeman Road Oval agreed that Inala had more of the game. The first half was even, with Inala having more shots at goal.

The second half belonged to Inala, you know Sideliner, the other team on the field. Inala's goalkeeper touched the ball only a couple of times and spent most of the half five metres outside the penalty area giving encouragement to his forwards, who were consistently fouled or held back. Concerning the two players sent off, they both appealed. One player won his appeal and the other received one week suspension for a clumsy tackle.

The refereeing was plainly pathetic and let Salisbury get away with a lot of bad tackles, while Inala were punished for the slightest infringement. The Salisbury coach, I might add, apologised for the ref's decisions and gave credit for Inala keeping their cool.

So lay off Inala, Sideliner, and give credit where it's due. Watch the game of Soccer for enjoyment, not just to see Salisbury win. Look at both teams for a change. Final word, I just hope this letter is printed for Inala's sake, although I doubt it.

P. Sherry,
Richlands.

No need to be like that. Everyone has the right to reply to criticism in Go Soccer. We wish more people would—

Dear Sir,

I have never written to Go Soccer before, but I have been buying it since it started. I must protest strongly at some of the refs. we are getting today. I know it is a horrible job. But let's be fair, the man we had in charge of our game on July 28th (I know he was no Des Miles) was very biased against Inala City and never got a grip on the game, which really would have been a cracker.

He also sent off two of the Inala players for minor and silly things, and yet let a couple of bad fouls by the opponents pass without even a card. I am just making an appeal. We have a lot of Soccer talent out at Inala and districts and we don't want to lose it.

Billy Graham,
Inala City supporter.

Dear Sir,

This letter of protest is basically Soccer orientated but the principles involved are much more far reaching. Let us first try to outline briefly the story. The junior Soccer team for which our young sons play, had through sheer determination (and a certain amount of luck), progressed through a competition (Dollar Curtains). We were drawn to play against a team from Taringa and the scheduled date of the match was the Queen's Birthday weekend.

It was to be played on a neutral ground at Auchenflower and our lads arrived for the match, but the opposition failed to appear. In accordance with the rules and regulations of the Junior Soccer Association under which the competition was run, we completed the team card, and obtained the referee's signature. (This is the procedure for claiming a forfeit). We assumed, albeit undesirable, that we had progressed to the next round. We heard nothing to the contrary until July 5, three weeks later, when we were given three days notice to find a team to "replay" Taringa. How can you replay something that never happened? Apparently the opposition had come up with some reason for not showing up on the original date.

This reason has never been divulged to us and we have been told there is no reason for us to know. Because of the short notice, allowing Taringa to have a second

STARS STOP LIONS ROAR

THERE were eleven stars at Bundamba on Saturday, July 28, when Coalstars recorded a memorable 3-2 victory over competition leaders Lions in the SE Q'and League fixtures. This win put Stars only two points behind Lions and back in second position in the premiership ladder (Brisbane City were surprisingly beaten 2-0 by Sunshine Coast).

With the possible exception of Ipswich United pair Errol Kreis and David Allen, Coalstars fielded their strongest team against a Lions side containing PSL players Ron Millman, Paul Lasz'o, Craig Wallace and Craig Low. It was evident from the start that Stars were fired up for victory and never allowed Lions to settle into their style of play and contained the danger men with quick tackling and strong cover defence.

At the other end, Stars attack, led by Rob Clark and Mark Mitchell were forcing Lions' defence into errors and a goal came when Clark tore at the defence from the right, was heavily tackled at the back line but came away with the ball, rounded two more tackles in the penalty area and squared the ball to Garth Mitchell, whose shot curled around two defenders to find the top corner of the net. At this stage, the Coalstars mid-field of Steven Bassingwaite, Bruce Penman, Garth Mitchell and John Pedley were working overtime, but against the run of play, Lions Ron Millman rounded Greg Caldwell and crossed to find unmarked Laslo, who fired in a great header to give Barry Shreiweis no chance.

Coalstars retaliated five minutes later when again Clark burst down the right flank and passed infield to Mitchell, who slammed in a great goal from 20 metres out. Coalstars' mid field was totally committed and could have gone further ahead when Penman's shot just went over the bar right on half time. The first 20 minutes of the second half was a different story as Lions came into the game and applied pressure, but strong defence from Shreiweis and the back four of Gary Connell, Brad Farr, Caldwell and Neil Woodford, plus some poor finishing from the Lions forwards, kept the scoreline intact until Stars fought back and Pedey, pushing forward from mid field, was brought down in the area and Clark hammered from the spot to make it 3-1. Lions bite of the cherry, we were unable to field a team. We admitted forfeit, sincerely, hoping the association would see fit to give us more time and perhaps play the game the following week. This was not so, but to make matters worse, an approach to club committee members was met with a raising of hands to the heavens and we were told to do nothing, because we would be an embarrassment to the club and also risked a fine if we persisted in our protest.

This is the Year of the Child, and yet these kids are to be disappointed. Even if they had lost the said match (which is most likely they would), they now surely will not have gained much in the way of sportsmanship. It has been said that we are a Sporting Nation, but not a Nation of Sportsmen. How can we ask these kids to stand up for principles, when their own club will not even stand by them and at least give them moral support?

The kids do not realise that "politics" are involved in junior Soccer, but we parents believe that strings were being manipulated to ensure that the "favourites" got through. Care for kids? Who cares? We do!!! But obviously some officials have not had to see the disappointment in the kid's faces, and explain to them "maybe next year". These particular kids were only nine years old.

We believe something stinks and we are not sure that we want our kids to be used as pawns in the "You scratch my back and I'll etc. etc.". We are all volunteers and know very little about the game of Soccer but we surely know something of principles. Maybe we should forget about getting the kids involved in playing Soccer and instead groom them to be administrators, where it seems everything they say is taken for granted, and blow the sportsmen. I'm sorry this letter is so long but feel very strongly and hope you might be able to help in some way.

pushed up with Wallace now up front and although Laszlo capped a fine game by ramming in to make it 2-3, Lions ran out of time.

Bardons Week

THE week ended last Saturday was a great week for Bardon Latrobe's 5th Division side. Firstly, they topped 100 goals for when they defeated Moggill 11-0, last Saturday week. Then, on Wednesday night the Qantas Cup provided another shock when Salisbury's 2nd Division side could only draw with Bardon, before losing on penalties. The week was complete when Bardon completely overpowered 2nd place side Acacia Ridge 6-0.

QANTAS CUP — The game started with pressure at both ends, but it took ten minutes for Bardon to take the lead through Mark Kerle's head from a Mark McDonnell corner. Bardon Latrobe were on top for the rest of the first half, but a mistake two minutes from half time saw Salisbury's left winger put away a through ball. This seemed to affect Bardon for the first twenty minutes of the second half and in this period Salisbury scrambled in their second goal. A couple of minutes later a weak shot trickled through Bardon keeper's legs, making it 3-1. At this point Iain Young pushed forward and gratefully put away a back pass which the Salisbury keeper failed to hold (3-2). Iain Young scored again when his back header beat the Salisbury keeper to the far post. The game ended at 3-3, but Bardon took the game 4-2 on penalties after Bardon's keeper John Atterton had saved two Salisbury attempts, thereby making up for his earlier error.

A couple of weeks ago a Salisbury scribe saw fit to criticise the behaviour of a couple of our Colts players, but I feel that he should 'clean up his own back yard' before passing judgment on other sides, as the behaviour of Salisbury's 6th division side up until Bardon equalised (you could hear a pin drop) left a lot to be desired.

(Bardon's thanks go to Beerwah who provided us with plenty of vocal support).

TRAVELODGE "PLAYER OF THE YEAR" AWARD

THIS year once again both Brisbane City and Brisbane Lions players will be competing for the Travelodge Player of the Year Trophy. The Travelodge Trophy is donated by Barrie Roberts, general manager of Brisbane Travelodge, where all the leading sports people stay, including the Phillips League and State League Soccer teams.

Last season Steve Perry from Brisbane City deservedly won the coveted prize after an outstanding season.

Each week an independent judge awards points on a 3, 2, 1, basis at each home game. The player to receive a 3 points rating wins a Champagne Dinner for 2

Last week the points were awarded:

Brisbane City v Brisbane Lions

- 3 — KIM WISHART
- 2 — STEVE PERRY
- 1 — JOHN COYNE

Progressive Points: 17 Jim Hermiston (BL); 11 George Potter (BC); 9 Steve Perry (BC), Tony Brennan (BL); 8 David Ratcliffe (BC); 7 Frank Pimblett (BC); 6 Barrie Fairbrother (BL); 5 Larry Gaffney (BC), John Ogden (BL); 4 Kevin Caldwell (BC), Peter Tokesi (BC), Tom McGregor (BL), Alan Niven (BL), Kim Wishart (BC).

ACACIA RIDGE — Bardon Latrobe carried their great Qantas Cup form over to Saturdays match when they outclassed Acacia Ridge 6-0. A great first half display by Ken McMillan provided Bardon with their 3-0 half time lead. He scored 2 and set up the third for Mark Kerle. Mark added another and Mark McDonnell 2 to give Bardon their 6-0 win.

SENIOR COLTS 'B' — Bardon Latrobe Colts caused another upset when they drew 1-1 with North Star, after leading 1-0 until the last five minutes, when North Star scrambled home a scrappy goal. A penalty was missed at either end before Bardon's Grant Chadwick hammered a free kick into the North Star goal.

Bardon could not put away one of their numerous chances which would have sewn up the match and were unlucky not to have held out for the two points.

Ridge Reporting

ACACIA RIDGE v TARINGA

THIS game was a big disappointment from a Ridge point of view. After watching them play Mitchie last week, As it was, they were very fortunate that they were able to collect a point.

In the first half the Ridge looked the better of the two teams in the football department, although Taringa always looked as though they might steal the game when they managed to get past the Ridge defence. Half time 0-0.

For the first 25 minutes of the second half Taringa had much more of the play than the Ridge. It was only some brilliant goal keeping from Robert Farrow that kept the Ridge in the game. This was until the 60th minute when Farrow made his only mistake and it was a very costly one, when he completely mis-judged a Taringa corner kick which passed over his head and into the net.

Although the Ridge had the better of the play towards the end of the game, Taringa always looked very dangerous when then broke and there was a big sigh of relief when the Ridge scored the equaliser with only 7 minutes left.

From a cross from the left winger, Terry Kennedy coolly back-headed a clever shot past the Taringa goal keeper. Both teams managed to survive the final minutes, not without the heart missing the odd beat though. Full time Acacia Ridge 1 Taringa 1.

Best of a bad bunch for the Ridge was Robert Farrow, captain Cruick who always looked dangerous until he got in front of goal and Randal Jackson up front, also a much improved Terry Kennedy.

It is not our policy to have a shot at Referees, but the display by this gentleman was nothing short of disgusting. Time and time again he allowed niggling fouls to go on unpunished, and at one stage the game looked like it would out-do TV Ringside. I also thought it was the job of a linesman to assist a referee in his duty. These two gentlemen were about as much good to him as a 'wooden balloon'.

5th DIVISION Acacia Ridge v Bardon —

Any resemblance our 5th division players thought they had to footballers after watching this game, would be by mere coincidence, not only in their play but also in the way they presented themselves before the kick-off.

Fair go to Bardon, from the time they scored the first goal they never looked in trouble and the Ridge were flattered a little at half time that the score was only 3-0 to Bardon. Scorers were Ken McMillan 2 and Mark Kerle 1. Half time Acacia Ridge 0 Bardon 3

In the second half, the Ridge looked as though they could restrict Bardon to a 3-0 victory. This was until they let lose again in the last 15 minutes when they scored another three goals from the boot of Mark Kerle 1 and Mark McDonnell 2, one of which was a cracker. Full time Acacia Ridge 0, Bardon 6.

Keeper Kevin George for the Ridge had a game he would like to forget in a hurry. Best for the Ridge were Stewie Hoimes and Drew Hansen. One thing about this game, coach Reg Dyer will have a lot to say and do at training this week. COLTS 'A' Acacia Ridge v Taringa

Like the above mentioned coach, the coach of this team will have a lot to work on this week in training. After watching the first 15 minutes of this game it looked as though the Ridge were going to run riot over Taringa. With seven minutes gone, Alan Hunter put the Ridge 1-0 up with a well taken header from a Colt 45, corner. Four minutes later the Ridge were awarded a penalty, which was very well saved by the Taringa keeper.

In the next five minutes the Ridge put a lot of pressure on the Taringa goal with a couple of shots just missing the uprights. Against the run of play, Taringa were given a gift of a goal in the 17th minute when keeper Fuzz Hill and Warren Johns made a mess of a simple situation. Score 1-1.

With only a minute left before half time, Taringa made it 2-1 with a well taken goal when the Ridge defence was caught ball watching. Half time Acacia Ridge 1, Taringa 2.

For the first 10 minutes of this half the Ridge looked like they were going to get back on terms, but this was not to be as in the 56th minute, keeper Hill had the horrors again when he pushed a simple ball into the net.

Soon after, Taringa sealed the game with number four.

TRIDENT TOPICS

FIRST DIVISION

We managed a handy point against North Brisbane in our first division match at Prentice Park last Saturday when we emerged with a 2-2 draw.

Through a combination of bad luck and lack of concentration Trident found themselves down two goals to one to a North Brisbane side that was running strongly.

It was Trident however, who took the lead when, in the thirtieth minute, the ever hard working Joe Bella received a through ball on the right wing, took it to the by-line, crossed it to Mick Dorian, just inside the eighteen yard box, and Mick took time and placed a shot past the keeper.

Five minutes later Norths equalised when they were awarded a free kick outside the box — Trident goal-keeper, Sam Mancini, upon catching the ball, slid over the line.

In the forty-third minute North Brisbane went to the lead after a mistake in the centre of the Trident's defence left the goal-keeper with little hope of stopping the shot and at half time the score was Trident 1, North Brisbane 2.

The second half was steady football with Trident slowly getting on top.

In the twenty-third minute, second half replacement, John Kennedy, received a good ball on the left wing, sprinted through North Brisbane's defence, drew out the goal-keeper and slammed the equaliser into the back of the net.

Both sides fought desperately to get the winning goal and, unfortunately, Trident's Garrie Lake and Bart McConaghy did not quite succeed.

Trident had chances to win but their lack of strikers cost them one of two points.

SIXTH DIVISION

Trident got back on the winning trail by defeating Darra 1-0 at Darra.

The win was a lack-lustre performance but came as a welcome change after last week's draw against Oxley.

Jack Waddington's conversion of the penalty in the forty-fourth minute was enough to earn Trident two points but they really should have scored more against a scrappy looking Darra. The game was not an enjoyable one to watch.

Several chances in front of goals were squandered and too many players turned in a 'just average' performance.

George Takis, Terry Kirkwood and John Mappleback were unlucky not to score, especially George, whose certain goal scraped the top bar.

Altogether not a very inspiring match; a great performance though by Heinze who controlled the game throughout.

Forget about the last two games and let's get back into the winning style of the beginning of the season.

SALISBURY SNIPPETS

by Sideliner

SECOND DIVISION — The match was summed up by one of the regular members of the team in one word, pathetic. Encouragement is good, only up to a certain point, from then on it is up to the players. Full time score, Salisbury 0, Fortitude Valley 4.

SIXTH DIVISION — Salisbury ran out winners over Fortitude Valley 7-1. The first half provided some good Soccer, with Salisbury missing many chances and Valley putting pressure on goalkeeper Ian Houghton for about the first 20 minutes of the game. But for the remainder of the match Ian had it pretty easy. Half-time was 1-1 and the second half really came alive with Bruce Austin contributing four of the goals. Dave Grumwell scored one of his rare goals and it was a beauty. Dave received a ball from Mick Summers and his drive from 18 yards gave the keeper no hope. Bobby Haigh, recently promoted from senior Colts played outside right, scored in his usual style and turned out to be one of the players of the match. There was also some great running and overlapping by Graham Sibbald and Mark Brigden. Peter Murray a second half replacement was rewarded for his good effort with an excellent goal.

COMMERCIAL TEAM — The Commercial boys had their first win of the season against a reportedly strong German Club team. Three goals scored by coaching director Barry Ware and many lucky saves by keeper Keith Forrest were highlights of the match. Final score, Salisbury 3, German Club 2.

SENIOR COLTS B — These boys defeated Kenmore Rangers in an exciting match in front of a good home crowd. The first goal resulted from a well judged corner from Stephen Downey, which was knocked in by Allan Teague.

Gary Weir's fine defence caused many Kenmore moves to break down on the 18 yard line and one of which got through gave Kenmore their only goal. The other advance was well handled by keeper Col Jensen. The second Salisbury goal came from a cross by Geoff Stead to Brad Cotton, who took the chance well. Downey added another through good leadup from Paul Van Der Meir and Stephen Brown. The fourth goal came direct from a perfectly placed corner by Brad Cotton and the fifth and final was due to Allan Teague, who chested down a pass and drove home. Final 5-1.

UNDER 9B — This team has found the move from a small field to the senior one rather hard to adapt to but they still managed to force a draw with Wynnum at the Maramba Stadium. In a match of missed chances, Darren Lucey made three determined runs down the wing, turning the ball well into the centre, only to see powerful shots by Bernie Uridge and Andrew Martin just miss the uprights.

Terrific play by the trio of Dale Allan, Adam Bunter and Terry Hayden saved goals on the line and good clearances by the rapidly improving Rodney Andress kept play well upfield. The match was a credit to coach Alix Allan and manager Don Andress, for all of their efforts during the season. Final score 0-0.

SUPPER DANCE — A dance will be held at St. Brendan's Football Club hall, Nyanda, Rocklea, on Saturday August 18 at 7.30 p.m. Admission is $6 single, including supper. Band is Mardi Gras. For tickets phone Cec Switzer on 345 3747.

DUTTON PARK UNITED

"WHEW"

It took us eighty-five minutes to pop in our only goal last weekend in our 1-0 victory over Greenbank. This goal came after a clearance downfield by Barrie Roberts found the flying "Mr. Magic" Duncan Brampton whose first time cross found Doug Carningham who shot accurately past the keeper. We could have had heaps of goals if only our shooting was more accurate in front of goal. We have been going through a lean period of goal scoring during the past month, but our strikers have promised a bag full this week when we take on old arch rivals Kingsridge. Good games were played by Eric Summons, Graham Ritchie and Barrie Roberts.

Referee Rating: 7-10.

EIGHTH DIVISION

The lads went down valiantly last week 4-1 to Wynnum. Once again our only goal came five minutes from half time when Kirk Lagos sprinted down the touch line and crossed to ever reliable Gordon (Jock) McGregor who slotted past the keeper to take us to a 1-0 lead. The second half was all Wynnum who finally got on top of our team of tryers and took out the game 4-1.

Referee Rating 8-10.

QANTAS CUP 1-8-79

Caspers ghostly crew showed little or no spirit in going down 5-0 to Annerley in our first round match. The score could have been closer and we put away our chances in front of goal. But all praise goes to the well drilled Annerley who on the night were the better side.

Referee Rating: 8-10.

Linesmen Rating: 4-10

TESTIMONIAL DINNER AND GAME

Last Saturday evening we honoured two of our long serving players Ray Yates and Alex McLaren with a testimonial dinner and followed up on the Sunday with a testimonial game against an invitational 11. I'd like to thank the committees of Acacia Ridge, Souths, Wynnum and Salisbury for releasing several players to compete in this game. A so thanks to the A.S.R.F. for the three gents who took the time out to control this game. The game ended in a 6 all draw with both Alex (2) and Ray (1), scoring for their respective sides. Thanks to Bill Barlow (A.R.), Garth Wilson (A.R.), Terry Kennedy (A.R.), Buster Rogers (A.R.), Tony Fullilove (A.R.), Drew Hansen (A.R.), John Gill-espie (S), Larry Kelly (W), Brian Garvey and Darryl Garvey for taking part in the game. Referee and linesmen rating 10-10.

Highlights of the evening before which was an outstanding success, thanks to the effort of Eric Summons were Mr. Alec Barlow (father of Acacia Ridge keeper Bill) letting us all know what a Scotsman wears under his kilt and Mr. Magic doing his own party trick, "Dunc. I thought you had blue eyes not brown! Thanks to all who made the two functions a great success.
