OFFICIALS WISH US WELL

AUSTRALIAN SOCCER FEDERATION PRESIDENT, Sir Arthur George:
On behalf of the Australian Soccer Federation and the Member States may I extend to the Queensland Soccer Federation their best wishes on the Centenary of Soccer in Queensland. The Queensland Federation are to be congratulated on the programme laid down for the 1983 Centenary Year. With games against Victoria, New South Wales, England and a match from the International Tournament to be conducted in October the Queensland Soccer public will be celebrating their Centenary Year with a feast of high standard Interstate & International events. On all players and officials and members of the Queensland Soccer Federation I extend my personal thanks for the promotion of the code within Queensland and Australia.

VICTORIAN SOCCER FEDERATION PRESIDENT, Mr. John Dimtsis:
It is with extreme pleasure that I extend to the Queensland Soccer Federation on behalf of the Victorian Federation its congratulations on the attaining of its Centenary. The initiatives taken and progress made by the Queensland Soccer Federation is a credit to the organisation.

The invitation by the Queensland Soccer Federation for the Victorian State Team to be the protagonist in its Centenary year renews the rivalry between the two states and I feel confident that the encounter will be an entertaining one and to both teams I extend my best wishes.

QUEENSLAND SOCCER FEDERATION PRESIDENT, Aid. Ian Brusasco:
This weekend is truly a proud moment for soccer in Queensland. As enthusiasm and interest begins to build for the centenary of Queensland soccer this year it seems appropriate that the celebrations should be officially kicked off with our 100th interstate game.

Since our first clash with Victoria in 1952 they have proven to be tough opponents. But with the honours fairly evenly shared — Victoria is a 7-5 lead in terms of victories — I am certain our 100th interstate game will be one of the toughest but most entertaining yet. I urge everyone to get behind both teams and the centenary and to not only this match but the whole year a great success.

● Ian Brusasco

THE QUEENSLAND SQUAD

Here is a brief history of the 14 players in the Queensland squad.

- 20 GREG MARSHALL: Age — 19 Club — Brisbane Lions. A promising youngster with excellent skills and reflexes. Man of the Match 1982 State League Grand Final.
- 8 TONY SCANLAN: Age — 23 Club — Brisbane Lions. Represented the state at every level. Has good anticipation and a very long kick.
- 2 STEVE PERRY: Age — 28 Club — Brisbane City. A former Socceroo and now one of the stalwarts of Queensland soccer. The only player in the present squad who played in the last interstate game.
- 4 FRANK LIDDELL: Age — 31 Club — Brisbane City. A former Hearts player who has been a great success at City since arriving 12 months ago.
- 12 DAVID COSTA: Age — 24 Club — Mount Gravatt. A sound defender. Good in the air and tackles well.
- 3 PETER TOKESI: Age — 32 Club — Brisbane City. A tough defender who is very competitive but always fair.
- 5 BILLY WILKINSON: Age — 31 Club — Brisbane City. Back after a season off injured and keen to do well in his favourite leftback position.
- 7 FRANK PIMBLETT: Age — 25 Club — Brisbane City. A brilliant midfielder and captain of his club's National League side.
- 8 RUSSELL STEWART: Age — 18 Club — Mt. Gravatt. Key player in Australian Youth team midfield. Very skilful and has a powerful shot.
- 8 PHIL THOMPSON: Age — 28 Club — Eastern Suburbs. A good reader of the game and an excellent passer of the ball. Unlucky not to have played in a National League team.
- 6 STEVEN HOGG: Age — 23 Club — Brisbane Lions. Former National player who wants to regain Socceroo honors this year. Tireless worker and a great tackler.
- 6 STEPHEN GLOCKNER: Age — 18 Club Brisbane City. Queensland Youth Team striker considered unlucky not to be in National side.
- 1 BILLY WILLIAMSON: Age — 30 Club — Brisbane Lions. Could transfer to City this season after an inconsistent year at Lions last season. But at his best a speedy, good finisher.
- 6 DANNY WRIGHT: Age — 18 Club — Brisbane Lions. Young Socceroo who is also a regular in his clubs national league team. Good on the turn.

THE VICTORIAN SQUAD

Below are pen-pictures of the 15 players in the Victorian squad.

- 20 JEFF OLVER: Age — 23 Club — Heidelberg. One of the most under-rated goalkeepers in the National League. Good hands and quick reflexes.
- 6 KEN MURPHY: Age — 27 Club South Melbourne. Gutsy midfielder who has played five times for Victoria.
- 1 DENNIS BOLAND: Age — 33 Club — Footscray. A respected goalkeeper whose brilliant performances at Club level sadly have not won him more representative honours.
- 2 PETER LEWIS: Age — 28 Club — Green Gully. A sound fullback making his third appearance in the Victorian Squad.
- 14 KEITH ADAMS: Age — 26 Club — Melbourne Croatia. One of the top defenders in Melbourne who has been a regular selection in the Victorian squad recently.
- 3 CHARLIE YANKOS: Age — 24 Club — Heidelberg. A regular in his club's National League team and a very tough defender to beat.
- 5 IAN DOBSON: Age — 26 Club — Croydon. A central defender making his debut in the Victorian squad.
- 4 JOHN YZENDOORN: Age — 28 Club — Heidelberg. A sweeper with 13 National Cups and 13 state appearances. One of this sides best Players.
- 8 JIM CAMPBELL: Age — 27 Club — Heidelberg. Former National team player and long time state representative.
- 6 STEVE WOODIN: Age — 28 Club — South Melbourne. New Zealand 1982 World Cup team member. Now settled at his club after a restless year last season.
- 7 DOUG BROWN: Age — 25 Club — Preston. Making his third state team appearance. One of Preston's most valued players and leading scorers.
- 11 GEORGE CAMPBELL: Age — 26 Club — Sth. Melbourne. Diminutive striker who has a good turn of speed and fine finishing ability.
- 2 PAUL LEWIS: Age — 26 Club — Green Gully. Only a relative newcomer to the Victorian state squad but will go well if he can repeat his club form.

VICTORIA

Perry is a State Team "SURVIVOR"!

Four years have passed since Queensland played its last full interstate match and when the maroons take the field against Victoria today, there will only be one player in the squad who also took place in the game against New South Wales in 1978.

That player will be Brisbane City fullback Steve Perry, who played rightback for Queensland in its unlucky 2-2 draw with the Blues.

The team that took the park that day was: Goalkeeper — Kim Wishart; Defence — Perry, Col Bennett, Jim Hermiston, Alan Niven; Midfield — Steve Amos, George Potter, Larry Gaffney (a late replacement for the injured Eddie Spearritt); Forwards — Steve Dolan, Barrie Fairbrother, Barry Kelso; Reserves — Alan Marley, John Paterson and Ron Millman.

Bennett and Niven were originally named in the Queensland squad for today's 100th match but the big Lions central defender is injured while Niven is on international duty with the socceros in New Zealand.

Just as today's team is playing its first match under a new coach, Bruce Stowell, Qld. were under the guidance of another new man in 1978 — the then director of coaching, Denis Ford. And it must have been a delighted Ford who watched his team go two goals up against the much favoured New South Wales team that boasted eight internationals including Todd Clarke, Murray Barnes, Peter Sharne and Phil O'Connor.

Queensland's lead came from goals by Steve Dolan in the 37th minute, after good lead up work from Fairbrother and Kelso, and a Fairbrother header off a Niven cross in the 61st minute.

Queensland seemed to be headed for its first win over a fully representative NSW side for 21 years until two goals in four minutes midway through the second half evened the scores. Slack defence in the 63th minute allowed Barnes to head in a Terry Butler corner, then shortly after, the speedy Sharne broke from the halfway line and carried the ball all the way before slipping it past Wishart.

NSW finished strongly and it was only brilliant defending by Hermiston in particular that kept the southerners from increasing the score.

While Perry has the honor of being the only player involved today that was "capped" in '78 there are several more "survivors" from Qld's last appearance. That match was in 1980 against touring Italian side, AC Milan. Once again Queensland drew 2-2.

The team that took the park against AC Milan was: Goalkeeper — Tony Scanlan; Defence — Steve Perry, Col Bennett, Jim Hermiston, Alan Niven; Midfield — Steve Hogg, George Potter, Gerry Lindsay, Phil Thompson; Forwards — Barry Kelso, Ron Millman; Reserves — Nigel Lownds, Billy Wilkinson, John Ogden and Wilson Maelaua. The coach was Ron Smith. Ogden came on for Lindsay and Maelaua substituted Kelso.

The Queensland defence and midfield played an excellent game but finishing let the team down on the day. The Italians led 1-0 at half-time, with a goal in the 13th minute from Carotti, and went to a 2-0 lead by the 50th minute thanks to a goal from Roberto Antonelli.

Man of the Match, Jim Hermiston got Queensland back in the game in the 53rd min. when he blasted a freekick around the wall and into the top lefthand corner of the goal. The goal inspired the Maroons and Queensland's constant pressure paid off when Millman headed home a Niven corner three minutes from time.

A YEAR OF HIGHLIGHTS

The full interstate match against Victoria is only the first of many planned activities this year to celebrate the Centenary of Queensland soccer.

The XXXX pre-season tournament, the first Queensland Soccer Federation run pre-season competition at Perry Park, is now in full swing with matches at Perry Park on Wednesday and Friday nights.

This week on Wednesday night, Taringa plays Sunnyside (6.30 p.m.) and Valley Trident is pitted against Grange Thistle (8.30 p.m.). On Friday Lions plays Easts (6.30 p.m.) and Mount Gravatt plays Acacia Ridge (8.30 p.m.) The final round of matches is on the following Wednesday night after which will be played the semi-finals and the finals.

The interstate match against Victoria is the first of two full interstate clashes this season. On May 8 at Perry Park Queensland will play New South Wales in a match where both sides are guaranteed to field their strongest sides.

June 15 has been confirmed for the big international clash between Australia and England at Lang Park. England could now field one of their strongest sides while Australia is likely to be coached by former England boss Ron Greenwood while Les Scheinflug is in Mexico with the Youth team for the world youth championship finals.

In all it should be an exciting year and one in which to get involved in Queensland soccer.

The stunning Mitre soccer balls, featuring the ASF-endorsed Kangaroo design, used in today's full interstate match were supplied by Mr. Peter Fleming, of Overseas Indents (Qld) Pty Ltd, of O'Connell Terrace, Bowen Hills. The Queensland Soccer Federation appreciates the gesture.
