AUSTRALIA — AND INTERNATIONAL SOCCER

Sydney sports patrons have eagerly awaited the return of the Englishmen from their Southern tour. The tremendous interest taken by the Victorian capital in England's visit is a tribute to their skill, and to the sparkling, spectacular and open play that has made Soccer undisputed champion in world football.

The success of this tour indicates that it will be the forerunner of visits by England, Scotland, and other leading Soccer countries in the British family of nations.

Australia has the material to challenge the world at Soccer football. The current series has brought players of the calibre of New South Wales' Eric Duff, Queensland's Malcolm Wild, and Victoria's Ross McKenzie to the limelight. As they rise to the occasion, they receive the opportunity to study and adopt the completeness of style and ball control that is the essence of true football. No code presents more opportunity to its players. To-day's prospects are the Test certainties of to-morrow.

After to-day, the English team will fly to Brisbane. Upon their return they are sure to receive another tumultuous welcome at the Sydney Showground, to-day fortnight, for the Fourth Soccer Test.

AUSTRALIA'S STAR PLAYERS

THE AUSTRALIAN PLAYERS

GOALKEEPERS

RON LORD (Auburn, N.S.W.), Goalkeeper. Barely 21 years of age, his handling and positional 'keeping are remarkable. Commenced Soccer as a junior in the Balmain district. First represented N.S.W. last year.

NORMAN CONQUEST (Canterbury-Marrickville, N.S.W.), Goalkeeper. Australia's leading custodian of the past decade. Agile, expert on ground saves and placing his kicks. Played against Palestine, China, South Africa (1947 and 1950), Yugoslavia, and now England.

R. Lord.

FULL-BACKS

HUGHIE PARKES (Wallsend, N.S.W.), Right-half. Hughie has a real Test Match outlook—full of vigour and skill that has made the Newcastle district famous in Soccer. Played for Australia against Yugoslavia, 1949.

KEV. O'NEILL (Cessnock, N.S.W.), Right-back. Starred against the Springboks, both as right-back and centre-half; also against Yugoslavia as left-half. Versatile, and a tough tackler. Kev's occupation is a mine deputy.

CEC. DRUMMOND (Leichhardt, N.S.W.), Left-back. Back in the limelight to continue his unbroken run of Test appearances against all post-war Soccer opponents, including New Zealand (1948). Cec possesses a big-match temperament that will prove invaluable to-day. A french-polisher by trade.

Cec. Drummond.

HALF-BACKS

BOB LAWRIE (Bundamba Rangers, Q'land), Right-half and Captain. Learned his Soccer on the Ipswich coalfields, Queensland. Wonderful skill at playing ground passes. Every player who toured South Africa in 1950 speaks volumes for Bob's ability as skipper. Occupation is a school-teacher.

TOM JACK (Brighton, Victoria), Centre-half. Commenced professional football in Scotland at age of 17½ years. Tom played for both Third Lanark and Dumfermline before migrating to Australia two and a half years ago. Toured South Africa last year. A traveller by occupation.

ERIC DUFF (Woonona-Bulli, N.S.W.), Left-half. Biggest success of Australia's First Test team. A tireless worker, with extraordinary positional sense. Starred for the South Coast in 1949, played in Victoria, 1950, before returning to Woonona.

FORWARDS

E. "DICKY" KEMP (Wallsend, N.S.W.), Outside-right. One of Newcastle's favourite Soccer stars. Has appeared in the strong Wallsend team for many years. Nippy off the mark, Dick possesses one of the most accurate corner kicks in the game.

THE ENGLISHMEN'S GOALSCORE RECORD

The Football Association Touring team have scored 94 goals on the Australian tour to last Saturday. In doing so their defence has only been beaten 9 times. Highest individual score in one match goes to Jimmy Hagan, who scored 8 at Launceston. Jack Sewell notched 7—the total score of the match—against An Australian XI at Melbourne.

There is one ritual that the English players insist upon at half and full-time. You can guarantee that they will enjoy their "coop of tea."

The structure of English Soccer football was built on discipline. Fitness of players means everything, and the man who keeps the tourists fit is Bob Shotton, who looks after the interests of the Barnsley team during the English football season. Some of the players, especially those who toured Canada last year, have been playing football once (and sometimes twice) a week for the past couple of years, almost without a break. The players are ready to step right into another English season a month after they return.

Last Saturday, after the Australian XI had held England at bay for 35 minutes, England rattled up 5 goals in 11 minutes. Ike Clarke scored 2 goals and Jim Hagan, 3.

The opportunities open to Soccer players for travel are unlimited. Whilst Portsmouth players Reg. Flewin and Ike Clarke are in Australia, their club is touring the Argentine!

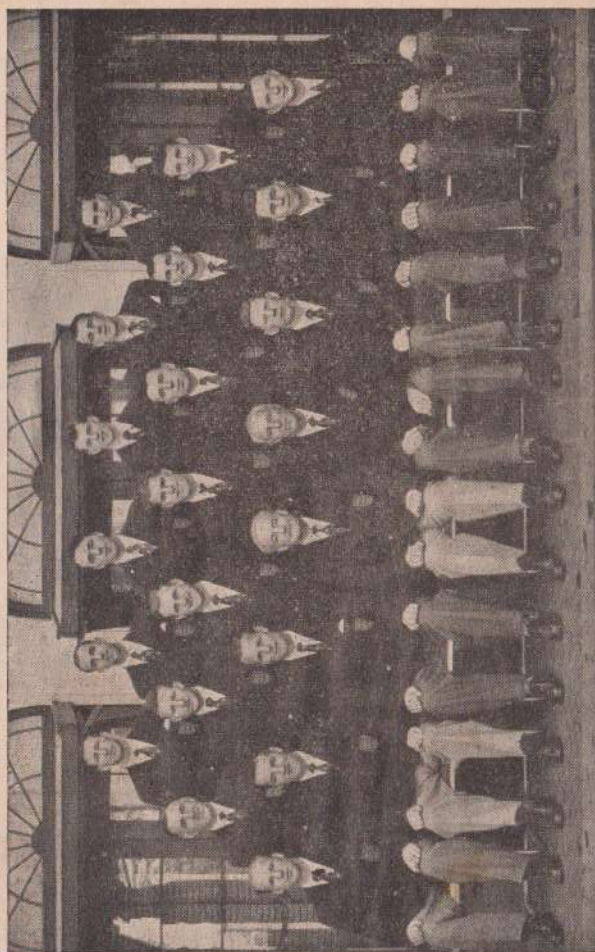

Amateur football has a great supporter in English co-manager Frank Adams. He was for 20 years a player of the famous Middlesex Wanderers, and 35 years ago he represented The F.A. Amongst his many trips was a tour of Germany and Spain in 1925.

Mr. Adams is an official of the Wycombe Wanderers Club in the Isthmian League, which he represents on the F.A. Council. He advises that there are 30,000 amateur clubs affiliated to the various County Football Associations. These figures do not include any age group or schoolboy teams, so the magnitude of English Soccer can clearly be seen.

English players wonder why Australia does not send a team to Britain. After a few matches together, Australian Soccer players could develop into a fine side, which would finish with a better record than some Continental sides who regularly tour Britain.

I. Clarke.

★ Sydney Soccer Clubs are accepting a number of overseas schemes. Leichhardt-Annandale have formed a supporters' club, which has 120 members. Other clubs who follow suit will be amazed by the number of enthusiasts who travel to "away" games.

★ It's a pity we cannot see the French Rugby League team opposed to New South Wales at Soccer football. They have a very good knowledge of Soccer, and could, at the very least, extend our players.

★ Accommodation at Mona Park Auburn compares more favourably with most suburban grounds. Five tiers of seats are available along one side of the ground. McArthur Park is improved so far as the playing field and score-board is concerned. Canterbury's home ground, Arlington Park, has new wire fencing around the playing pitch.

★ Enthusiasm ran high at Granville over the English players' match at Parramatta. A continual stream of buses ran from Granville to the ground.

★ Most striking comment on the Englishmen came from Bill Baldock, a miner at Aberdare Extended. It was quoted in the June issue of "The Coalminer." Bill said "I wish I were as good as the worst of them. Then I'd be captain of Australia!"

★ N.S.W. players flew to Adelaide last week in fine weather, and were greeted by a deluge of rain. The Australian XI versus England match was played under leaden skies. The Adelaide Oval attendance of 15,000 indicates that 20,000 to 25,000 spectators can be expected at such a game in Adelaide in future if the weather is favourable.

★ Norm. Conquest was not daunted by England's prolific scoring at Adelaide. Despite the fact that the Australian XI's defence was cracked, Norm. saved a big proportion of the shots that were fired at him with monotonous regularity.

★ Gladesville-Ryde Southern League Club gained a well-merited win at the expense of Inter-City Club Eastern Suburbs in a first round replay Sydney Cup-tie. Sam Williams scored two very nice goals.

★ Guildford Club were not over-shadowed by Auburn in their Second Round Sydney Cup-tie, but lacked punch near the goal. Full credit goes to right-half Henry Hamilton, centre-half Ted. Fitten, and young goalkeeper A. Fairfax for a courageous display.

★ Jack Stevens, Auburn's right-back and captain, was replaced at right-back by former captain Jack Wells in last Sunday's Cup game. Stevens should be fit again shortly.

★ North Shore and N.S.W. Police Clubs should get to know one another pretty well this season. As well as two competition matches, Police and Norths were drawn in the Sydney Cup. The Southern League Cup drew will bring them at opposite ends again, at Chatswood Oval on 21st July.

★ Granville were kept in check by Newcastle team, Mayfield United, last week. Last-minute goals by Ken Vairey and Alan Garside enabled Granville to share the points.

N. Conquest.

THE AUSTRALIAN PLAYERS (Continued)

JOCK HODGE (Auburn, N.S.W.), Outside-right. Came through junior grades in Newcastle, and graduated into West Wallsend's State League team. Transferred to Auburn, 1950, where he has proved an outstanding crowd-pleaser.

ERIC HULME (Granville, N.S.W.), Inside-forward. Toured South Africa last year, and played in both winning Test teams. Came through all grades in Granville Association. A beautiful touch in passing, combined with a first-time shot.

FRANK PARSONS (Leichhardt - Annandale, N.S.W.), Centre-forward. Came to prominence with Adamstown club, and transferred to Leichhardt in 1946. Frank is capable of scoring almost impossible goals. His shot comes in as fast as Reg. Date's. A school-teacher by profession.

MALCOLM WILD (Eastern Suburbs, Queensland), Inside-left. Mal. has not been seen at his best in Sydney. To-day's match will see him demonstrate why his name has become a household word north of the border.

ROSS MCKENZIE (Brighton, Victoria), Outside-left. Learned his Soccer at Brighton Tech. Has played junior and senior for 7 years with Brighton. Represented Victoria (under 19) in Adelaide, 1948. Amazingly fast with a cannon-ball drive.

HARRY ROBERTSON (Leichhardt-Annandale, N.S.W.), Outside-left. Coolest left-flankman of recent years. A product of Sydney churches' football, Harry went into Leichhardt's first team at 17 years of age, and has missed few games since. Played against the Slavs and Springboks.

Frank Parsons.

QUIZ ? ? ? ?

QUESTION: What is the meaning of the word "ANDREW."

ANSWER: A sailor would tell you that it is a word coined to define the ROYAL NAVY. Of course if you were ever a member of the R.N., you would know this, but do you know that here in SYDNEY is your own Club, yes, a ROYAL NAVY Club.

BANKSTOWN COULD SURPRISE

Despite the shock defeat by Cessnock, the superb Leichhardt-Annandale Soccer machine is well in gear, as witness its 6-0 win over Auburn last Saturday. The Reds are unlikely to lower their flag in the next couple of weeks.

Nearest challengers, Wallsend, have to down Bankstown at Bankstown Oval to-morrow to maintain their position. The Greens, captained by a big-hearted footballer in Arthur Smith, are capable of causing an upset. At Blick Oval Canterbury to-morrow, Canterbury meets Granville. The Blues are always a threat to Granville; they will be anxious to prove that last week's form is all wrong.

Auburn can expect a hard game at Corrimal next Saturday, where the home ground advantage could have a bearing on the final result. Canterbury still have an outside chance of making the semi-finals, with 8 premier-ship rounds still to play. They hope to head Leichhardt in the clash at Lambert Park on 28th July. Eastern Suburbs are well out of the running. The Tricolours can only hope to upset some of the leading lights, as they surprised Mayfield recently.

QUEENSLAND SECTION OF TOUR COMMENCES

The English team fly to Brisbane on Monday morning, and open their Queensland itinerary at Brisbane Cricket Ground next Wednesday with a match against the Bananalanders. Queensland's team is to be chosen from the following players: Goalkeepers, W. Mitchell and D. Wishart; backs, M. Newlands, R. Jardine, and A. Duncan; half-backs, R. Lawrie, H. Brophy, L. Gibb and R. Coleman; forwards, D. Morris, B. Bruce, G. Nunn, M. Wild, A. Pitcairn, G. Gabor and R. Hughes.

The selectors have at their disposal a good array of experienced players, together with some who will accept the opportunity offered. The Third Test will be played at the Brisbane Cricket Ground next Saturday, with indications of 25,000 in attendance. England will play North Queensland at Bundaberg the following Wednesday, before returning to Sydney for the Fourth Test at the Showground on Saturday week.

Jan. 24, 1951

We received a ball from Mr. Boston to try out here in English L. Football. We tried this ball and it proved a great success in all sorts of weather and we have no hesitation in recommending its use to other Football Clubs.

*Yours faithfully,
BOB JACKSON, Manager.*
