mail (108 Spencer Rd, Alto NM 88312);
 or order in person. No phone orders.

If ordering for several classes, please include a separate list of the teachers' names, grade level and number of students. If you need additional tickets, a second purchase order or a second order form with payment is required.

Every person entering the auditorium (students, teachers, drivers, parents, chaperones) must be included in your order total.

PAYMENTS:

Schools may submit a purchase order. Ticket orders will not be held unless payment or a school purchase order is received within 10 days of the order date.

Payment is required at time of order for home school students, family, and friends by check, cash, or credit card.

SEATING:

Seating is general admission. We will organize seats for the various grade/age levels of the students, keeping classes or schools together if possible.

ALL SALES ARE FINAL:

We are not able to give refunds. In case a school officially closes (due to weather, etc.) on the day you planned to attend, we will allow an exchange for another performance within the same season if space permits. Official notification in writing from the principal within 3 business days of the missed performance will be necessary before any adjustments can be made.

CONFIRMATION:

We will send an email confirmation of each ticket order.

TICKET VOUCHERS:

Prior to the performance, we will email a voucher noting the total number of students and adults on the order.

TRANSPORTATION:

The teacher or principal must arrange bus transport. Schools in the districts of Ruidoso, Capitan, Carrizozo, Corona, Hondo and Mescalero may be reimbursed for busing costs. Forward your invoice to the theater to the attention of the business office. All school districts assume full & sole liability for transportation services.

The performances begin on time, so please allow plenty of time for travel -- the theater is located 30 minutes from central Ruidoso.

GRADE LEVELS:

We recommend appropriate grade levels for each performance. Teachers of other grade levels may consider bringing their students if they find the material suitable. Please be advised that students more than 3 grade levels from those recommended may experience some dissatisfaction.

SPENCER THEATER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS CLASS ACTS 2021-22 SCHOOL YEAR

Inspiring children to learn through theater arts is a vital part of programming at the Spencer Theater. We are proud to help educators, via Class Acts performances of dance, music and drama, to present art that is both educational and entertaining. Class Acts performances are designed for children of all ages and presented at the Spencer Theater exclusively for the benefit of school students and home school students. Launched in 1997 when the theater first raised its curtain, Class Acts has served tens of thousands of school children from throughout south central New Mexico with the indispensable joys of arts and entertainment. The program has enjoyed continuous transportation support from the R.D. & Joan Dale Hubbard Foundation, and funding support through New Mexico Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts. We thank these entities and all participating teachers and students for their support.

In order to make attendance affordable for all students, tickets to all Class Acts performances are priced at $5 per person. Shows run approximately one hour in length. Ordering begins Tuesday, September 14th: Download the order form No phone orders are taken. Email: boxoffice@spencertheater.com or mail/in person: 108 Spencer Rd., Alto, NM 88312 to reserve seats for your class. Classes should have (1) chaperone for every 15 students. The performances begin on time, so please allow plenty of time for travel -- the theater is located 30 minutes from central Ruidoso.
