Vestal Goodman
1929 - 2003

Born December 13, 1929 in Pyffe, Alabama, Vestal Freeman became a Southern Gospel legend. Reared in the rich Gospel Music tradition around Sand Mountain, she married Howard Goodman in 1949 and joined the Singing Goodman Family. She became best known to fans across America through the group's subsequent appearances on the Gospel Singing Jubilee and on the PTL television network. Distinguished by her strong powerful voice, Vestal reached the top of the Southern Gospel Music industry with the Happy Goodmans' popular rise in the mid-1980s and remained the "Queen of Gospel Music" in the minds of many for the remainder of the twentieth century.

Benefactor: Judy Spencer Nelson

Born in Memphis, member of the 1940s industry leader and the development of songs such as "Bought By One of the Angels" including the T's where the young inspirational Tina Turner was inducted recipient. Lou 96 of Gospel Music 02
