

Dear Friends,

I pray your New Year is off to a great start! May you be blessed with health and strong spirits as we all go through this challenging time.

I think it's safe to say that our nation is in a truly difficult season, filled with political conflict, pandemic, and fraying personal relationships.

As we read in the Gospel According to Mark, when Adversity visits, it's on us as People of Faith to remain true to God! Jesus knows our sufferings, needs, loneliness and mourning, and God in Jesus Christ will provide for all our needs! Believe it, and embrace the Good News!

Know always that God loves you!
Blessings,
Anil
