

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

I pray your week is off to a great start. May God bless you with health, love and peace this week!

The next couple of Sundays will be packed with meaning, for our congregation and for our faith!

This Sunday, we will recall the Ascension of Christ, that moment in Luke and Acts where Jesus offers the Apostles a final commandment and then ascends into Heaven. We are ALL called to serve as His Witnesses to the Ends of the Earth! What an astonishing enterprise!

On that day, we will also celebrate Trinity's Students who are either graduating from school or advancing in their educational careers. This is a great time to congratulate and encourage our younger members. I hope you can join us, especially at the 9:00 am Service.

Next Sunday (May 24th) is Pentecost, the day when we remember how the Holy Spirit enabled the Apostles to convey the Gospel in a multitude of languages. This year, Pentecost also happens to fall on the Sunday before Memorial Day, so we will have a double remembrance - expressing our gratitude all of those who risked and gave their lives for our Nation, and remembering the arrival of the Holy Spirit!

I pray that you can all join us at Trinity over the next few Sundays, but if you happen to be out of town, please worship with us via Facebook or YouTube! Your faithful presence is always a blessing!

"May mercy, peace, and love be yours in abundance." - Jude Anil
