

RMHS Summer Reading 2022

Grades 11 and 12

This summer all 11th and 12th graders should complete the summer reading assignment that corresponds to the English class they are enrolled in for the 2022-2023 school year.

AP Literature and Composition (read both books):

The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, by Robert Louis Stevenson

How to Read Literature Like a Professor, by Thomas C. Foster

AP Language and Composition:

The Autobiography of Malcolm X, by Malcolm X and Alex Haley

AP LANG students will have a note-taking assignment, which will be available on the RMHS website.

Honors and CP Classes:

Students should read one of the following books. We have identified four categories of books in the hope that all students will find a title that appeals to their interests, but students are required to read only one book from the entire list (although we encourage you to read more!). Students will complete assignments related to the book when they return to school in September. Students are not required to take notes on the reading; but it is suggested, and note-taking templates will be available on the RMHS website.
