July 22, 2026, Vancouver, British Columbia – Stamper Oil & Gas Corp. ("Stamper" or the "Company") (TSX-V: STMP) (US OTC: STMGF) (Germany: TMP0) announces that it has entered into promissory notes (collectively, the "Notes") with certain lenders for aggregate gross proceeds of C$150,000 and clarification to expiry date of previously issued restricted share units ("RSUs").

Of the aggregate principal amount, C$50,000 was advanced by Mat Goldsmith, Chairman and a director of the Company, through a payment of US$36,000 (the "Chairman Note"). The remaining C$100,000 was advanced by lenders that are arm's length to the Company.

The Notes bear interest at a rate of 7.5% per annum, calculated and accruing from the date the applicable funds are received. The Notes are unsecured. No securities, loan bonuses, finder's fees or commissions are issuable or payable in connection with the Notes. In accordance with TSX Venture Exchange Policy 3.2 Filing Requirements and Continuous Disclosure, the Chairman Note remains subject to TSX Venture Exchange acceptance.

The Company intends to use the proceeds of the Notes for working capital and corporate purposes.

The Company is relying on the exemptions from the formal valuation and minority shareholder approval requirements of MI 61-101 contained in sections 5.5(a) and 5.7(1)(a), respectively, as the fair market value of the Chairman Note does not exceed 25% of the Company's market capitalization.

RSU Expiry Date Update

Further to a news release dated March 19, 2026, the Company announces that the 11,500,000 RSUs granted to certain directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Company on March 18, 2026, will expire on March 18, 2029, pursuant to the Company's restricted share unit plan.
