AMT/IAS does not discriminate on the basis of nationality, ethnic origin, age, or gender. We guarantee the rights and privileges, and the availability of programs and activities to all students at the College. Privacy Rights of Students: Statute 20, United States Code, 1232g and regulations adopted pursuant thereto. The code provides for an institution to establish a category of student information termed "directory information." All information, such as health and medical records, disciplinary records, records of personal counseling, required student and family financial income information records, transcripts or student permanent academic records, student placement records, and other personally identifiable information shall be open for inspection only to the student and such members of the professional staff of the college as have responsibility for working with the student. Such information will not be released to second parties without consent of the student; except as required for use by the President in the discharge of his official responsibilities as prescribed by laws, regulations of the state board, and board policies, the designated custodian of such records may release information from these records to others only upon authorization in writing from the student or upon a subpoena by a court of competent jurisdiction. PLEASE READ CAREFULLY THE FOLLOWING AFFIDAVIT OF AGREEMENT BEFORE SIGNING I agree that I have truthfully and accurately answered all questions contained in this application. I understand that falsification of any kind is grounds for refusal of my application or expulsion should falsehood be discovered after acceptance to the college. I indicate by my signature that I have been notified of my rights as recorded by Statute 20, United States Code, 1232g. I certify by my signature that I agree to abide by the policies of this institution as described in the AMT/IAS Student Handbook and Course Catalog. I understand that AMT/IAS is accredited by ACI, a private non-governmental agency and is not regionally accredited. ACI (Mission Bible Training College) has not sought U.S. Department of Education recognition at this time nor does ACI (Mission Bible Training College) guarantee the acceptance of academic credit by colleges and universities or other Bible Schools. I acknowledge that AMT/IAS is not a job placement service and makes no claims regarding employment. Rev. 10/06 Form #22 Student Signature
