Verb + ing

Use

You use the verb + ing when you talk about liking or disliking something.
Verb + ing is also used when asking about liking or disliking something
When you use the phrase 'be good at', you follow it with a noun or the verb +ing.
When you use the verb 'mind', you also follow it with verb +ing

☹	☹	😐	☺	😃	😍
I hate	I don't like	I don't really like	I like/enjoy	I really like/enjoy	I love

Form

	Question	Answer
Like or dislike	Do you like play*ing* football?	No, I don't like play*ing* football
	Do you enjoy learn*ing* the guitar?	Yes, I love learn*ing* the guitar
Be good at	Are you good at sport? (noun)	Yes, I am good at sport
	Are you good at swimm*ing*?	No, I am not good at swimm*ing*
Mind (as a verb)	Do you mind work*ing* late?	No, I do not mind work*ing* late
	Do you mind spend*ing* time with us?	No, I love spend*ing* time with you